

City in Tabloid

Elks Will Initiate Class

Initiation of a class of candidates will take place tomorrow night at the meeting of Duluth Elks lodge in the club quarters. Arrangements for the annual turkey festival and Thanksgiving party also will be made.

City Seeks Expert Opinion.

Authorization to procure the legal opinion of Wood and Oakley, Chicago bond attorneys, on the issuance of $50,000 of incinerator bonds was given to J. B. Richards, city attorney, in a resolution adopted by commissioners yesterday. It was introduced by Commissioner Leonidas Merritt.

Five Autolists In Court.

Five men, charged with violating traffic laws, were booked in municipal court yesterday. Albin Pratti and Oscar Sangstad were charged with driving their cars with mufflers open. Pratti forfeited $15 bail and Sangstad was found not guilty. Nikolai Nelson, charged with parking his car in a prohibited district forfeited $5 bail. Hjalmer Hill, charged with exceeding the speed limit, was found guilty and fined $17. John Welsh, charged with violating the traffic code, forfeited $10 bail.

Man Goes To "Farm."

Percy Black, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, was found guilty in municipal court yesterday and sentenced to the work farm for 60 days. John S. Scheffer, charged with transporting intoxicating liquor, received a dismissal of his case on motion of H. E. Weinberg, city prosecutor.

Trespassers Pay Fines.

Alex Krseneau and John Codg, charged with trespassing on Northern Pacific railway property, were found guilty in municipal court yesterday and fined $12 each.

New Firm Incorporates.

The McGovern-Wring company, which will engage in a general construction business, filed articles of incorporation with the register of deeds yesterday. The firm is capitalized at $50,000. Incorporators are Clarence E. Wring, Thomas E. McGovern, E. W. Coons, W. C. Cohoe and C. A. Belanger, all of Hibbing.

Builders Name Committee.

A committee to co-operate with the central organization in business relations was appointed yesterday by the Builders', Owners and Managers' association at a meeting held at the Commercial club.

"Trail" Work Contemplated.

Procedure for the completion of improvements on the Theodore Roosevelt International highway in Minnesota, was outlined before the Duluth Auto club yesterday at a meeting at the Commercial club. The matter will be taken up with the state highway department and efforts will be made to begin work in the spring.

Trlo Gambled, Charge.

Three men, arrested for violation of city gambling laws, were arraigned in municipal court yesterday. Herman Greenbate, age 21, charged with keeping a gambling device at 511 1/4 West Superior street, pleaded not guilty. His case was continued until 2 p. m. today. John Sullivan and Andrew Larson, charged with gambling, received continuances in their cases until the same time. They furnished $25 bail each.

Autolst Forfeits Bail.

Ernest Hermanson, charged with driving his automobile while intoxicated, forfeited $100 bail in municipal court yesterday.

Case Is Dismissed.

Samuel M. Kaner charged with keeping and maintaining cattle within the city limits without a permit received a dismissal of the charge in municipal court yesterday on motion of H. E. Weinberg, city prosecutor.

City Will Seek Bids.

Permission to advertise for bids for a winter cab and attachment for a snow plow and a 10-ton caterpillar tractor was granted Commissioner Farred in a resolution adopted at the council yesterday.

City Settles For $1,144.

Acceptance of the $1,144 offer of the Duluth Street Railway company in full settlement for damages to a fire department automobile, was made in a resolution adopted by city commissioners yesterday. The car was struck by a street car Aug. 25. S. H. Hansen, assistant fire chief, and R. S. Maynard, a fireman, were injured.

Bridge Repairs Authorized.

Repairs to the Aerial bridge to cost $367.89 were authorized by city commissioners yesterday. The contract was awarded to the Globe Duluth Iron Works.