

City In Talboid

Woman Alleges Desertion.

Ida Poling, age 29, filed suit for divorce against Ernest Poling, age 28, a motion picture operator, in district court yesterday. They were married July 22, 1914. She charges he deserted her Nov. 15, 1920.

67 Seek Citizenship.

Sixty-seven applicants for final citizenship papers will have a hearing today in district court. The examination will be conducted by Richard K. Doe, federal naturalization examiner.

Nurses Will Meet.

The December meeting of St. Luke's Nurses Alumnae association has been postponed until Jan. 9, according to announcement made yesterday.

Canary Birds for Sale.

Received a shipment of fine imported canaries especially for the Christmas trade. Come in and hear them sing. Bird Store, 107 East Superior street. —Adv.

Oil Bids Opening Delayed.

Opening bids for 200,000 gallons of road oil for 1922 consumption was postponed until Dec. 10 by Bert Farrell, commissioner of public works yesterday. The bids were scheduled for opening yesterday.

Liquor Raids Continue.

Duluth police and federal agents continued their raids on alleged liquor dispensing places yesterday. Anton Rangstad, age 35, was arrested under a federal warrant at 529 West Michigan street and charged with sale and possession of intoxicating liquor. Mabel Spatton, age 34, was arrested at 112 North First avenue East where a quart and a half of "moon" was found, according to the police. She was charged with possession of liquor. Both deposited bail.

Five Forfeit Bail.

Five persons arrested at 123½ First avenue West, where two revolvers were found by the police, forfeited $20 bail each in municipal court yesterday. All were charged with drunkenness. Albert Roy appeared in court on a similar charge and he was discharged on motion of H. F. Weinberg, city prosecutor. Bail was forfeited by Earl Spooner, Le Roy Ellingson, William West, Maurice Doyle and Vivian Spooner.

Damage Case To Jury.

The action of Minnie C. Anderson against the City of Duluth, which is on trial before Judge C. R. Magney in district court, will go to the jury today. The plaintiff claims to have sustained $2,000 damages when she fell on a icy sidewalk.

Trapper Pays Fine.

John Bagley pleaded guilty to a charge of violating game laws in municipal court yesterday and was fined $12.50 including costs. He was arrested by J. E. Kreager, game warden, who testified that Bagley was trapping mink out of season near Shaw, 53 miles north of Duluth.

Warehouse Plans Filed.

Plans for a warehouse to be built by the Stone-Ordean-Wells company at Fargo were filed with the Duluth Builders Exchange yesterday. The building will be two stories in brick and measure 174 by 12 feet. Bids are due tomorrow.

Station Bids Due.

Bids will be opened for the construction of the mines' experiment station of the University of Minnesota. Bids are expected to be close to $200,000. C. H. Johnson of St. Paul is the architect.

$27,000 Suit Brings $6,500.

A verdict for $6,500 was returned by a district court jury hearing the suit of Charles Hald, father of Helen Hald, against D. A. Fitz Patrick. The plaintiff sued for $27,000 damages alleged to have been sustained when his daughter was run over by the defendant's automobile.

Bailiff Celebrates Birthday.

Roger S. Lerch, Civil war veteran, is celebrating his seventy-ninth birthday today. Mr. Lerch is bailiff at the Duluth district court.

Storm Warnings Hoisted.

Northwest storm warnings were ordered hoisted at 10 p. m. last night on Lakes Superior and Michigan by the Washington weather bureau, according to a message received by H. W. Richardson of the local bureau. Southwest warnings were ordered on Lakes Huron, Erie and Ontario. The disturbance centers about Iowa, moving northeastward, attended by strong shifting winds, becoming northwesterly, and probably reaching gale force, Mr. Richardson said.

New Degree Team Named.

A new degree staff will have charge of the initiation of a class of candidates at the regular meeting of Majestic Rebekah Lodge No. 60, Odd Fellows auxiliary, 7:30 p. m. Wednesday night at the club rooms, 30 Lake avenue North. All Rebekahs have been invited to attend.

Rabbi Will Speak Twice.

Rabbi Israel Lebendiger will speak on "Selling the Birthright" at the weekly services to be held tonight at the Hebrew Institute. Tomorrow afternoon he will speak in Jewish at the Adas Israel synagogue.

Meat Inspector Reports.

Beef, veal, mutton and hog carcasses numbering 824 were stamped last month, according to a report received yesterday from the meat inspector by Dr. E. W. Fahey, public health director. Veal totalling 165 pounds was condemned during November. During the month, 217 meat market inspections were made.