

Social Happenings

AN EXQUISITE CENTERPIECE of Bride's roses and narcissus in a basket of silver tied with white tulle and candles bowed with tulle in silver standards made festive the luncheon at which Mrs. Frederick D. Raymond entertained at her home yesterday in honor of Miss Gertrude Hegardt, whose marriage takes place tonight. Colonial corsage bouquets were at each place and covers were laid for 12 guests.

Roses in pink, crimson and white were used to decorate the tables at the Northland Country club last night when Mr. and Mrs. Hegardt entertained at the bridal dinner for their daughter and Mr. Halsey. Forty guests were present, including the bridal party, out-of-town guests and a few intimate friends.

MISS MARY LOUISE HANSON, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Hanson, East Third street, will entertain a group of friends at her home Dec. 28. Hours will be from 2 until 5 and 22 guests will be present.

ONE OF THE BIG PARTIES of next week is the first annual Chunukah ball which the Council of Jewish Women will give at the Spalding hotel Monday night. Those in charge of the affair are Mrs. W. Oxman, Mrs. M. G. Altman, Mrs. A. Davidson, Mrs. M. Solon and Mrs. A. Karon. They are planning an unusually attractive party which will include many out-of-town guests.