THE GIRLS of the Philathea class of the First Baptist church were hostesses to 15 mothers of Gary and the Little House on the Corner on Friday. Following the Christmas party the girls accompanied the mothers home, leaving a Christmas basket for each home.

THE 1921 PHILOMATHEON CLUB of the Duluth Central high school will have a Christmas party and dinner at the Coolahanagh Inn tomorrow night. These girls, who graduated from school last year, are home for the holidays and the affair will be in the nature of a reunion.

THE JUNIOR SENIOR GIRLS CLUB of the Central high school gave a little sister party and the Freshman-Sophomore club sent all the gifts and trimmings necessary for a tree to the Community Center Mountain schools in Caney creek, Kentucky, as part of the social service work at Christmas time. The little sister party was held Friday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. when the members of the club personally brought 35 little girls, who do not have Christmas cheer at home. These were treated to a real tree, and Santa presented each little girl with a doll and a bag of candy, the dolls being purchased and dressed by the club. Miss Ethel Zachow made a most realistic Santa. Games were played under the direction of Miss Ruth Bates, and Mrs. Russell Duncan told the children a Christmas story. Refreshments were served.

Miss Elizabeth Adams, president of the club and Miss Jeannette Flagstad, chairman of the social service committee had charge of the affair. The other members of this committee are the Misses Luella Dahlum, Roberta Perrin, Alice Danielson, Virginia Kaake and Ruth Anderson.

The Freshman-Sophomore club besides furnishing the trimmings for the tree, provided 100 gifts, neatly tied in holiday garb, and 100 little stockings filled with candies and nuts.

Both of these clubs, under the excellent guidance of Miss Anna Macfarlane, the girl's secretary at the Y. W. C. A. and Miss Adams, the president of the Junior-Senior club, and Miss Sarah McPherran, president of the Freshman-Sophomore club, have been most active in the Central high school life. Members of the faculty working with these girls are the Misses Margaret Taylor, Jean Plant, Ruth O'Brien and Harriet Gemmel.
