

City in Tabloid

Health Directors' Meeting.

The directors of the St. Louis County Public Health association will meet at the courthouse tomorrow to discuss the progress of the Christmas seal campaign and health program, Miss Louise Schneller, executive secretary, said yesterday.

Collision Causes Suit.

Charging that Jacob Hailkkila maliciously drove an automobile into him, while he was riding a motorcycle, Axel Anderson of Ely filed suit for $6,000 against Hailkkila in district court yesterday. The collision occurred on the Ely-Virginia road Aug. 28.

Auditing Company Incorporates.

A. C. Brude & Co., of Virginia, which will engage in auditing, filed articles of incorporation with the register of deeds yesterday. The firm is capitalized at $50,000. The incorporators are A. C. Brude, L. A. Rowe and Anna Brude, all of Virginia.

Ogg Sues for $620.

Trial of the action of John D. Ogg against Clarence E. Miller was commenced before Judge H. A. Dancer in district court yesterday. The plaintiff is suing for $620 damages alleged to have been incurred by his automobile in a collision with an auto operated by the defendant.

Unitarians Start Campaign.

Rev. Henry J. Adlard of the First Unitarian church has been appointed chairman of the church membership campaign in Duluth to recruit a 25 per cent increase in members in a nation-wide "follow-up" of the financial canvass of last year when approximately $2,400,000 was raised within the denomination in the United States and Canada.

Chanukah Programs Prepared.

In observance of Chanukah, the Jewish Feast of Lights, morning and evening programs will be given in Hebrew institute Sunday, Dec. 25.

Missing Boy Sought.

Assistance of the Duluth police to locate Ben Kuuva, age 15, missing from his home since May, is requested in a communication received by Sergt. Eli LeBeau yesterday from the boy's mother Mrs. Albin Kuuva, Franklin Mine, Mich. The boy was reported in Hancock, Mich., after he left home and his mother received a card from her son who was in Duluth in June.

Travelers To Frolic.

The fifth annual Christmas party for members of the Zenith council No. 40, United Commercial Travelers and their families, will be held tomorrow night at Camel's hall. Two hundred children are expected to attend. Ice cream and cake and Christmas gifts will be distributed by "Santa Claus."

Face Addresses Masons.

Rev. C. N. Face was the principal speaker at a dinner and meeting of the Scottish Rite at the Masonic temple last night. Dr. Face told of his experiences on his recent trip through Europe. Following the dinner 60 members were given the thirtieth degree.

Railroads to Add Coaches.

Practically every railroad in the city has agreed to add coaches to trains leaving Duluth Friday night on which teachers will return to their homes for the Christmas holidays. It was announced at the board of education offices yesterday. The schools will reopen Jan. 3.

Musical Program Given.

A musical program was given at the Webster school Wednesday night following the night school classes. The event marked the Christmas program for the night school attendants. Musical clubs and organizations of the city gave the following program: Mrs. F. G. Brandriff, piano solos; Glee club of the State Teachers' college, Duluth Mixed Finnish Chorus and solos by Mrs. Rueben M. Scott.

Relief Worker to Speak.

Anna J. Haines, who recently returned from Russia where she was engaged in relief work in the famine area, will address an open meeting at 6:15 p. m. tonight at the Y. W. C. A. She has been brought here by the Duluth branch of the Minnesota committee for the Relief of Russian children.

$5,100 Is Estate Value.

John Haapala of Ely, who died Sept. 1, age 64, left an estate valued at $5,100 according to petition for administration filed in probate court yesterday. Four heirs are named, residing in Massachusetts and Finland. Axel F. Sundin, who died Aug. 15, 1909, left an estate valued at $4,300 according to petition for administration. The widow and three sons are named as heirs.

Partners Arrested.

Tony Susnik and Ott Ringle, proprietors of a soft drink establishment at 325 West Michigan street, were arrested yesterday by federal agents on a warrant charging violation of the prohibition act. Both waived examination when arraigned before Commissioner H. H. d'Autremont and were released on $1,000 bail each pending action of the grand jury in January.

Lions Will Meet.

The Lions' club will hold its weekly meeting this noon at the Commercial club. Harley Davidson, instructor of skating at the Curling rink, will address the members. Reports from the athletic and Christmas committees will be read. F. K. Randall will be chairman of the meeting.

Shriners at Smoker.

The annual business session and election of officers of Aad temple will be held at 8 o'clock tonight at the Shrine auditorium. A smoker will follow the business meeting.

Delinquent Lists Prepared.

Delinquent tax lists of the city water and light department given to Walter Borgen, county auditor, total $7,733.43. David A. Reed, manager of the department, disclosed yesterday. This sum will be placed on tax statements to be issued by the county treasurer in the spring.

Kapplin Returns.

A. B. Kapplin returned yesterday from Minneapolis, where he was called a week ago by the illness of his father, who is recovering.

Automobile Damaged.

An automobile driven by Jack Meyers, 423 East Fourth street, was slightly damaged last night when a sleigh drawn by a runaway horse slewed into the machine at First avenue East and Fourth street. The horse, according to a police report, is owned by P. J. Harrington, 104 East Fourth street.