

WINNERS IN DECLAMATION CONTEST AT VIRGINIA NAMED

VIRGINIA, Feb. 13.—Miss Anna Harmon was winner in the girls contest of the declamation league, and Isadore Nathanson, of the boys contest held in the high school auditorium Friday. Miss Harmon gave the reading "Gentlemen, the King," and Isadore Nathanson gave "Citizenship."

Miss Harmon, winner of first place, has appeared in several plays given by the local high school and last year took the leading role in "Katy Did," and will have the leading juvenile role in the play to be given the later part of this week by the E-Ha-Wee-Wa campfire "Mice and Men."

The judges were: Miss Lorena MacFarlane, V. E. Boardman of Eveleth, and Roland Risdon of the local Y. M. C. A. for the boys; and Miss Emma Glaser, Mrs. E. J. Larson both of Virginia, and J. F. Muench of Mountain Iron for the girls.
