

Vocational Head of Legion Will Attend Eveleth Convention

HIBBING, Feb. 16.—The question of vocational training for ex-service men will be taken up before a meeting of the Eighth district board of representatives of the American Legion posts, to be held at Eveleth Friday.

The Cobb-Williams post of Hibbing, will be represented at this meeting by Israel Sher, who has requested that all ex-service men who have had any difficulties or delays in arranging for vocational training take this matter up with him before the Eveleth meeting, so that he in turn can present them to the district board for discussion.

The state head of the department of vocational training for ex-service men from St. Paul will be present at the meeting Friday.
