

MORRIS KARON WINNER OF ORATORICAL CONTEST

Morris Karon was the winner of the Superior state normal school oratorical contest, held Friday at the auditorium of the normal school. His topic was the "Russian Problem."

"The Open Forum," delivered by Ralph Levine, and "Jane Adams" by Lenora Buros, were tied for second honors. Paul Evanstad, president of the State Normal School Oratorical association, and Miss Nora McQuilkin, oratorical coach at the normal school, will accompany Mr. Karon to Platteville, Wis., where the state oratorical contest for normal schools will be held March 18.
