

IN THE PRESENCE of relatives and intimate friends Miss Mary O. Fitzsimmons, daughter of Mrs. Charles Thomas Fitzsimmons, became the bride of Andrew Armstrong Kincannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kincannon of Memphis, Tenn., at the home of the bride's mother, East First street, when Bishop James Dow Morrison read the service at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Miss Helen Dore of St. Paul and Miss Beatrice Fowler of Chicago enriched white satin ribbons from the staircase to the improvised altar of white peonies and tamarack, forming an aisle through which the bridal party passed. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Charles. There were no attendants. Miss Eleanor Kraft at the piano played Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride was gowned in white tulle with side cascades of real lace with which she wore a pearl necklace, the gift of her mother. White sweet peas and lilies of the valley were combined in her shower wedding bouquet.

Following the service Mrs. Fitzsimmons was hostess to 25 guests at 1 o'clock high tea. Yellow and white daisies were used to decorate the dining room, where Mrs. George Merrill, Mrs. Edward Staten of Coleraine and Mrs. J. D. Halnes assisted.

One hundred friends of the family attended the reception held during the evening at the Fitzsimmons home. Yellow and white was the color motif used.
