

AUTO VICTIM GETS VERDICT.

A verdict for $1,500 in favor of the plaintiff, Francisco Cardemone, was returned by a jury in Judge W. A. Cant's division of district court yesterday against David Berger, defendant. Morris Berger, joint defendant, was absolved from liability by the verdict. Cardemone alleged that he was struck by the defendant's automobile while about to board a street car at the intersection of Superior street and Seventh avenue West, Sept. 7. The original suit was for $4,700.
