

TWELVE AUTOS STOLEN STILL MISSING, POLICE RECORDS SHOW

Twelve cars stolen in Duluth since April 2 have not yet been recovered. This leads the police to believe that the thefts were committed by professional auto thieves rather than joy-riders.

Two Superior men and one Virginian were among the victims. The owners who reported their losses are:

W. W. Stevens, 2128 Minnesota avenue; L. Dauplaise, 1202 Tower avenue, Superior; R. Hilgedick, 117 East Second street; D. A. Cameron, 710 East Sixth street; Harry Karon, 122 East Second street; Herbert Berg, Hunters Park; E. M. Gaylord, 206 Alworth building; A. A. Johnson, 1023 North Seventeenth street, Superior; Mike Bockovich, 523 Seventy-sixth avenue West; L. A. Spearing, 506 1/2 East Fourth street; Lloyd Sherwood, Virginia; O. E. Martin, 732 East Superior street.
