
Son Injured by Auto; Father Starts Damage Suit

Virginia, Aug. 26.—Joseph Garon, today filed suit in district court against Oscar Sjoblom, who he alleges ran into his young son Bernard on April 12 of this year, causing the child serious injury. In his complaint Garon charges that Sjoblom was driving on Second avenue West early in the afternoon of that day, when children were on their way to school and that the driver of the car, failed to sound his horn and was driving carelessly.

A criminal action against Howard Chapelle, a resident of Stuntz was filed today by the Village of Hibbing. Chapelle was arrested for running a gambling den at Hibbing.
