

MINNESOTAGRAMS

EVELETH—Carl Shapiro and Jack Hultquist, representing Virginia Rotary club, were in Eveleth, interviewing business and professional men on advisability of organizing Rotary club here.

AITKIN—First leap year dance of season was given Thursday night by Married Folk's Dancing club at Odd Fellows hall.

HIBBING—Infant son of J. E. Loyo was slightly injured when run over on Third avenue by truck belonging to village gas department.

BUHL—Explosion, cause for which is unknown, at water and light plant did considerable damage Friday afternoon. Heater "let go" and blew out large double door in plant. Engineers was out of room at time of explosion.

VIRGINIA—Charles Wagman, Alvina resident, was taken to Lenont hospital Friday morning, suffering from bruises suffered when his horse ran away.

BAUDETTE—Vaudeville troop from Minneapolis and Thief River Falls band will be features of Elks' visit here Saturday. Fifty Baudette men will become Elks. Ceremonies will be in Zech's hall. Special train will arrive with Thief River Falls delegation. Elks are coming from Virginia, Mountain Iron, Grand Forks and Fargo.

PILLAGER—This village is to have oil station. It will be built as soon as weather permits. Guy Gustafson will be manager.

HIBBING—Forest Ranger McIntosh has returned from tour of inspection through north woods. He was investigating slash clearings.

VIRGINIA—Rev. Carl Lindberg, Superior, spoke Friday night at Swedish Methodist church. He was first Swedish pastor in Virginia, coming here 25 years ago.

BAUDETTE—Fort Frances defeated Rainy River at hockey, 6 to 5.

PILLAGER—Farmers met Friday to decide if they shall join Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange. No decision, however.

HIBBING—Degree of honor and I. O. W. U. met at Rood hall Thursday night. Former held open initiation and officer installation. Latter held open installation.

BAUDETTE—Canadian National railway will move freight depot to end of Henderson avenue next week.

PILLAGER—High school girls' basketball team defeated Wadena five here, 11 to 9 in three extra periods of play. Local boys lost to Wadena boys, 16 to 14, winning point free throw.

HIBBING—Minnesota University alumni club will meet at Hibbing Tuesday night in library club rooms.

BAUDETTE—Pioneer Store purchased stock of goods belonging to Peter Vanhouse at Graceton and will open branch store there with J. L. Williams in charge.

TWO HARBORS—Dental clinic will be held in local schools next Tuesday to Friday, exclusive.

AITKIN—J. W. Sarff, pioneer Holstein breeder of Aitkin county, attended Holstein show at St. Paul. Two of his animals were on display. They carried off seventh and twelfth places in prize awards. There were 16 entries.

MOOSE LAKE—W. W. Westholm, of the firm of Swanson & Westholm, has sold his interest in general merchandise business here to Semer and Ole Swanson, who will conduct store under firm name of Swanson Bros. & Co. Westholm is soon to leave for west.

THIEF RIVER FALLS—On program of musical section of Woman's club, Thursday night, were Gerda Martenson, Ella Evans, Mrs. W. A. Ziegler, Mrs. Oscar Spanhelm, Mrs. Nathan Harris, Dora Holmes, Edna Larson, Mrs. G. W. Booren, Mrs. Otto Gullingerud, Thora Hansen, Emelia Horn and Rose Taylor.