

Manager Oil Company

Reports Auto Stolen

---

Virginia, Sept. 6.—Carl Shapiro, manager of the Northern Oil company, reported to the police today that his touring car was stolen from near his residence. The police have notified authorities in surrounding towns to be on the lookout for the missing car.

This is the seventh car reported to the police as stolen during the present year. All of the others have been recovered and the thieves apprehended and prosecuted.