

City in Tabloid

Denies Innkeeper's Charge

Fred Swanson pleaded not guilty to a charge of defrauding an innkeeper when arraigned in municipal court yesterday. His hearing was set for Tuesday. Bail was fixed at $100.

Lincoln Program Supported.

Members of the Lincoln club of Duluth will be urged to participate in the Lincoln day programs, according to J. M. Nolte, president. The Lincoln club will not give a program on that day, but members will be urged to observe the day in full appreciation of its significance, Mr. Nolte said.

Committee Hears Reports.

Discussion of educational methods for foreign born women of Duluth occupied yesterday's meeting and luncheon of the women's naturalization committee in the Glass Block tea rooms. Reports from the Bryant and Adams district were given by Mrs. James Johnson and Mrs. F. G. Brandriff. Miss Margaret J. Quillard led in a talk on suggestions for future work.

Field Man to Speak.

Walter J. Millard, field secretary of the Proportional Representation league, will give an address on "city manager plan" at noon today at the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Millard is touring the United States speaking on this subject which deals with city, state and government methods of election.

Fish Fry Safe, Says Wires.

A mixture of Lester river water with city water containing chlorine eliminates any danger of fish fry dying. S. P. Wires, superintendent of the United States fish hatchery here, declared yesterday. He said at times city water is used entirely without affecting the trout fry. A report from Sturgeon Bay, Wis., indicated that 16,000 trout fry had died from water containing chlorine.

To Open Paving Bids.

Bids on the Superior street paving projects will be opened at 11 a. m. today in the public works office. The specifications call for a pavement to be laid from Eighth avenue West to Third avenue East.

Woodland Club to Dance.

A community dance for Woodland residents will be given under auspices of the Woodland club in the Cobb school auditorium from 8:30 to 10:30 p. m. today.

Social Workers to Dine.

The Social Workers' club will hold a dinner and program at the boys' "Y" at 5:30 p. m. tonight. Miss Bertha W. Clark, immigration secretary of the national Y. W. C. A., and Dr. A. L. McDonald will be the speakers.

Jurors Are Excused.

Jurors, except those hearing cases in district court, were excused yesterday by Judge W. A. Cant until Tuesday. There will be no new jury cases taken up until that time, Judge Cant said. Two criminal cases are in progress before Judges Cant and Bert Fesler. Judges C. R. Magney and H. A. Dancer are hearing court cases. The next district court sitting in Duluth is March 1.

Woman Ordered Deported.

Anna Sohla Rosmo, common law wife of Renato Anselmetti, alias Jack Devon, recently deported from this country as an undesirable alien, was taken to Minneapolis yesterday for deportation on a similar charge, according to L. L. Martineau, immigration inspector.

"Mixer" at Y. M. C. A.

A good time social and "mixer" will be held at 8 p. m. tonight by the Christian Endeavor union at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. All young people are invited to attend.

Uncle Sam Is Auctioneer.

A public auction of unclaimed parcels will be held at the Duluth customs office in the federal building at 10 a. m. Tuesday. The articles include clothes, dental supplies, rifles, revolvers, straw baskets, suitcase, a storage battery and spotlight.

Father Awarded $2,000.

A verdict in favor of Hilding Dahlin against the Duluth Street Railway company was returned by a jury before District Judge C. R. Magney yesterday. Dahlin sued for $7,500 for the death of his 3-year-old daughter, alleged to have been caused by the negligence of the company. Sept. 12, 1921.

Lincoln Is Sermon Subject.

"Abraham Lincoln" will be the subject of a sermon by Rabbi Israel Lebediger at the Hebrew institute tonight.

Banquet Committee Selected.

William Joelson, Harry Levine, Maurice Labovitz, Ralph Elevitch, Charles Green, and Sam Davis were announced as the committee to arrange for the father-and-son banquet to be held under the auspices of the Young Folks' league. The date and place are undetermined.

Nurseries Given Judgment.

Judgment for $1,662.75 in favor of the Griffing Nurseries and against A. Walt Steidle was ordered by District Judge C. R. Magney yesterday. The company alleged that Steidle owed them that amount for merchandise.

Books Ordered Opened.

Sebastian Tanguasso was granted an order to examine the books of the People's Realty and Investment association by District Judge H. A. Dancer yesterday. Tanguasso is former president of the association. Present officers of the association contended that the order should not be granted because Tanguasso would damage the association if permitted to examine the affairs of the concern and make them public.

Plumbers Elect Officers.

An election of officers closed the three-day convention of the Minnesota Retail Plumbers association at the Spalding hotel yesterday. Henry Gazett, Duluth, was re-elected president; George Greiner, Hibbing, was named vice president; Oscar Johnson, Minneapolis, treasurer. The board of directors was authorized to name the 1923 convention city.

Masons to Play Cribbage.

A cribbage contest between Lakeside and Palestine Masonic lodges will be played at the banquet hall, Masonic temple, Lake avenue and Second street, tomorrow night.

Kite Specimens Awaited.

Specimens of kites that may be entered in the "kiteday" competition planned for April will be received soon by J. R. Batchelor, city recreational director, he announced yesterday. Included in the samples sent for by Mr. Batchelor are the following types: dragon, Chinaman, bird, butterfly, airplane, box and winged box kites.