
Bandits in Two Holdups, Unrewarded for Activities

Two attempts at holdups were made in Superior Saturday night, but in each case nothing of value was taken by the robbers, according to information given out by the Superior police department.

Two unmasked men held up James Gunn, 718 North Sixth street, a short distance from his home at 10 p. m. A half hour later Ben Fergal was accosted by four unmasked men on Eighth street between Cumming and Hammond avenues, the police said. Neither of the men held up was able to describe the robbers because of the darkness at the time of the holdups.
