

City in Tabloid

Burglary Suspect Bound Over.

Wilfred Callais waived examination when arraigned in municipal court yesterday charged with burglary in the third degree. He was bound over to the grand jury. Mike Yaremke, 'alias Mike Smith, charged with grand larceny in the second degree, will be given a hearing Oct. 17. Bail was fixed at $500. He was arrested by the Superior police.

Pair Forfeit $200 Bail.

Ida Likkonen and Matthew Boland, both charged with operating illegal liquor places, forfeited $100 each in municipal court yesterday.

Sunday School Institute.

A Sunday school institute will be held at the First Christian church, Twelfth avenue East and Fourth street on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 17 and 18. Glen McRae and Miss Lucy Wetzel of Omaha, will be the leaders. All Sunday school workers will be welcome.

School Plans Nearly Ready.

Plans for the $75,000 addition to the Emerson school will be out early next week, it was announced yesterday at the office of Kelly & Shefchik, architects. The wing will be L-shaped, 75x90 feet.

Plans to Build $10,000 Home.

Bids will be called shortly for construction of a $10,000 residence for Ernest Dunning on Roslyn avenue. It was announced yesterday by H. S. Starin, who has completed the plans.

Chisholm Plans City Hall.

Completion of plans for a city hall and market building at Chisholm was announced yesterday by Anthony Puck and E. C. Gillison, Duluth architects. Bids are due Nov. 2, specifying a two-story structure.

Nursery on Miller Trunk. Read announcements on society page.—Adv.

Captain on Vacation.

A. G. Fiskett, captain of police, has temporarily relinquished official duties and has taken a week's vacation to be passed in northern Minnesota hunting grounds. Lieut. John Englert has been made acting executive of the district during Captain Fiskett's absence.

Recreation Room Established

The ladies' auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans, Camp, No. 5, has furnished a room in the new annex of St. Mary's hospital. The room is entirely finished in white with white furniture to match. In this room patients are invited to while away their time, according to Lucy M. Campbell, president of the camp.

$300 Sought in Suit.

Thomas Thompson filed suit in district court yesterday to collect $300 from A. D. Weston, which he claims is due him on a note.

"U" Doctor to Speak.

Dr. Leverett Bristol, of the public health department of the University of Minnesota, will speak at Memorial hall, courthouse, Monday, on "Public Health Problems of Our Cities," under the auspices of the Home bureau.

Change of Venue Asked.

The Aetna Life Insurance company yesterday filed a motion in the United States district court to have action brought against it by Mrs. Anna Lavant of Brainerd, remanded from Crow Wing district court to federal court. Mrs. Lavant is seeking $10,000 from the insurance company for her husband's death by bullet wound on April 22, 1923. The insurance company bases its claim for a change of venue on the fact that it is a foreign corporation, being incorporated under the laws of Connecticut.