

Range B'nai B'rith Gives Banquet, Dance in Virginia

Virginia, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—The Virginia B'nai B'rith lodge was host to more than 150 members and guests at the annual banquet of the Range B'nai B'rith association in Odd Fellows' hall last night. Many more attended the dance which followed the banquet.

The evening opened with the singing of "America." An address of welcome was given by M. Lindeke, president of the lodge. The principal speaker was Jesse B. Calmosen, of St. Paul. Talks were given by Dr. Lou Wallace Gade, of the Presbyterian church; Samuel Nides, of Hibbing; A. B. Kaplan, of Duluth; Frank Rabinowitz, of Eveleth, and M. K. Baer, of Virginia. Musical numbers included a solo by Florence Dorfman and piano selections by Mrs. C. E. Goodman. N. V. Keller, of Virginia, was toastmaster.

Dancing was enjoyed until 1 o'clock with music furnished by William Mallory's orchestra. The entertainment was one of the most successful in the history of the Range B'nai B'rith.
