

SUPERIOR LEGION TO SEND GIFTS, VISIT DISABLED VETS

Ex-service men from Douglas county in local hospitals will be visited by the visitation committee of the Superior post, No. 65, American Legion, tomorrow, and each man will receive a present from his former comrades.

Oswald K. Anderson is chairman of the visitation committee. He will be assisted by Commander Jack W. Hochle, Robert Ryan, George Lee and Thomas Bradley.

Christmas boxes have been packed and shipped under the supervision of the Legion and auxiliary to all Douglas county ex-service men in hospitals and sanatoriums out of the city. Boxes have been sent the following ex-service men:

Phillip Hallock, National Soldiers' home, Milwaukee; Ben McCormick, United States Marine hospital, Chicago; Edward Evenson, Mount Washington sanatorium, Eau Claire; Harry McDonald, Frederick Trude, Hector J. Daoust, Soldiers' Memorial hospital, Mendota; Bernard Sendseth, Mount Washington sanatorium; Michael Ryan, Erick Aspland, Maplecrest sanatorium, Whitelaw; Jesse A. Connors, United States & Public Health hospital, Milwaukee;

Frank Berg, P. O. Box 588, Baltimore; Art Munger, United States hospital No. 55, Dwight, Ill.; Charles W. Nordquist, D. C. Clemenz, United States Veterans' hospital No. 37, Maywood, Ill.; Rudolph Dahling, Maywood hospital, Maywood, Ill.; Miss Mary Bock, nurse at the Indian school, Fort Bidwell, Cal.; William Butterick and Mrs. Butterick, No. 18, Calumet street, Denver; Leo Ploof, United States Marine hospital, Great Lakes, Ill., and Richard S. Hoare, No. 47 Drexel street, Chicago.