

Virginia College Students Return Home for Holidays

Virginia, Dec. 22.—(Special).—Where most of the schools and colleges Virginia boys and girls are studying closed for the Christmas holidays. Among those who have already arrived home are: Melvin Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Irwin, who attends St. Thomas college; Temple Eaton, Robert Whitten, Emerson McNeill, Isabelle Trotter and Richard Trotter, students at the University of Wisconsin. Virginia Britts, Irma Flehr, Franci Marion, Wenonah Whitten, Olga Bergman, Josephine Wilk, Myrtle Grande, Harry Millavets, Dave Millavets, George Abrahamson, Esther Rogness, Elizabeth Reinnertson, Jean Alexson and John Hawkinson, from the University of Minnesota; Ida Granholm, from Macalester college; Letta Hayes, St. Theresa college; Gustave Bergman, Stout institute, Menominee, Wis.; Matt Prijanovich, La Crosse, Wis.; Lavelle and Francis Moore, St. Mary's of the Woods, Terre Haute, Ind.; Helmer Kestila, University of Minnesota.

Virginia girls who are attending the Duluth and Superior normal schools arrived home last night.
