

Fourteen High Speakers Seek District Honor

Virginia, March 23.—Fourteen high schools will take part in the district declamation contest to be held at the local high school auditorium tomorrow. The boys' contest will be held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and the girls' at 7:45 in the evening.

Virginia will be represented in the contest by Pauline Nickerson, giving, "Madame Butterfly" in the girls' division, and Charles Johnson in the boys' division. Other schools in the contest include: Aurora, represented by Max Freldman, whose selection is, "The New South"; Biwabik, John Zackovich, "Uses of Education for Business"; Buhl, Ulysses Santini, "Liberty and Union"; Chisholm, Solie Groman, "The Visions of War"; Coleraine, Jack King, "The Unknown Speaker"; Denfeld high school, Duluth, Elliott Ingrebightson, "The Hope of Democracy"; Eveleth, Raymond Perlman, "The Hope of the World"; Gilbert, Matt Leppinen, "The Unknown Soldier"; Grand Rapids, John McDougall, "A Vision of War and a Vision of the Future"; Hibbing, Louis Eisenberg, "The Unknown Soldier"; Keewatin, Roman Zech, "The Wandering Jew"; Mountain Iron, Jack Kleimola, "Americanism"; Nashwauk, Howard Caddy, "Americanism."

The program for the girls' division is as follows: Vera Bergstrom, Aurora, "The One Hundredth and One"; Florence Miners, Biwabik, "Mother Love"; Erma Cronberg, Buhl, "Judas Iscariot"; Ina Ahonen, Chisholm, "The Piper"; Ruth Schoengarth, Coleraine, "What the Fiddle Told"; Mary Marguerite Doyle, Duluth Denfeld, "The Lion and the Mouse"; Amelia Derjal, Eveleth, "Gentlemen, the King"; Blanch Liddicoat, Gilbert, "Helen Thamre"; Florence Shoaff, Grand Rapids, "The Christmas Substitute"; Frances Silliman, Hibbing, "Joint Owners in Spain"; Beryl Norman, Mountain Iron, "He Knew Lincoln"; Susan Madder, Nashwauk, "The Littlest Rebel."
