

Eveleth Lions Favor New Mail Routing Proposed

Eveleth, March 30.—(Special.)—The Eveleth Lions' club has indorsed the proposal of William Wilkamaki, which would divert mail transportation to Corbin through the Eveleth postoffice. The town of Corbin, it was said, later will be named Makinen. A committee composed of Mr. Wilkamaki, W. H. Harvey and Harry Levant will investigate the possibility of inaugurating the proposed mail routing.
