

Duluth Takes Part in Revival for Aid of Jewish Religion

Minneapolis, March 7.—Seven Minnesota cities will be visited by rabbis and laymen from St. Paul and Duluth this month in an effort to promote a revival and development of the Jewish religion. The visits will be part of a campaign conducted by the Union of American Hebrew congregations.

Rabbi Elvin E. Luchs and Alvin L. Frelmuth, president of Temple Emmanuel El, Duluth, and Rabbi Jacob I. Meyerovitz and Jacob Dittenhofer, president of Mount Zion Hebrew congregation, St. Paul, will have charge of the move.

The cities to be visited are Chisholm, Eveleth, Keller, Hurley, Mankato, Virginia and Winona.
