

Lad Catapults From Lawn to Walk, Hurt

Rolling down an inclining lawn at 209 East Ninth street late yesterday afternoon, Sidney Davidson, age 7, misjudged his speed and his body was catapulted over a six-foot abutment wall to a cement sidewalk. The lad was taken to St. Mary's hospital where attendants last night said he is suffering from concussion of the brain. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Davidson, 313 Second avenue East.
