

Allied Y.M.C.A. Circus Artists Thrill 700

---

Clowns, gymnasts tight rope walkers, fancy dancers and other amateur performers thrilled 700 spectators last night in the two-ring allied "Y" circus at the Central Y. M. C. A. The circus was given by the Central "Y," the West Duluth "Y" and the Boys' "Y." The performance will be repeated tonight at the West Duluth "Y." returns of the two performances to be prorated among the three organizations.

Special dance features were provided by Madge Erickson, Katherine McDonald and Muriel Joseph. They are the pupils of Miss Dorothy Crosby and Miss Marie Clark. Axel Lavla did a "hair raising" slack wire stunt and Clarence Olafson offered an exhibition of illuminated club swinging. Music was furnished by Denfeld High school band under the direction of George Parrish.

Comedy was carried through the performance by pantomimist, clowns who produced laughter to relieve the tense situations caused by dare devil stunts of some of the performers. They were: Lester Sterwald, J. Megson, Harlow Nelson, W. Widenhoffer, Louis Eachobacci, Nick Eachobacci, William Peck, F. W. Bordeleau, C. A. Hess, Joseph Michud, Lester Sterwald and Cyrus Segerin. C. L. Lind of the Central "Y" acted as ring master.
