

About People

MR. AND MRS. C. K. DICKERMAN, Kent road, will have as their guests early in June, Mrs. Dickerman's sister, Mrs. Percy C. Crocker, and her little son, Stephen Noel of Cambridge, Mass. Mrs. Crocker will arrive in Minneapolis May 28 to visit her father, Jacob Stone at the Ingleside, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stone jr., at their home, Girard avenue, for 10 days.

MISS BEATRICE FORSYTH, East Fourth street, will leave tomorrow for Minneapolis where she will visit her aunt Mrs. O. C. Dalrymple, at the Curtis Court for 10 days.

MRS. T. T. HUDSON is visiting her daughter Helen, who is a student at Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Alan Starkey have purchased the Hudson home, East Fifth street, and have already taken up their residence there.

MRS. MILTON M. STICKLES of Red Wing, Minn., is the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlson, East Third street. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson motored to Red Wing last week and Mrs. Stickles returned to the city with them Tuesday.

GILBERT DICKERMAN has returned from Los Angeles where he and his family passed the winter. Mrs. Dickerman and children will arrive in the city June 20, and will be at their summer home at Grand Lake for the season.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY KELLEMAN, who have been occupying the John Christie home, East Second street, will move shortly to 1616 East First street, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Kelleman came to Duluth in January from the south to make their permanent home here.

CAPT. S. B. WEINER and Mrs. Weiner, with their two children are motoring from their home at Fort Benjamin Harrison in Indiana to Duluth, and will arrive some time next week to be the guests of Mrs. Weiner's mother Mrs. John Silverman, East Second street.

MISS ERMINIA J. HALL is returning to her former home in Plattsburgh, N. Y., for a visit.