

Superior Briefs

Squadron Speakers in Superior.

Rev. M. C. Brown of Bloomington, Ill., and Dr. D. Leigh Colvin of New York City, were the speakers of the "Flying Squadron" at the Hammond Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and last night. The Boys' Glee club of the Superior Central high school sang.

Street Bonds Authorized.

The city commissioners yesterday morning approved a resolution introduced by Commissioner A. D. S. Gillett, authorizing and directing the issue of $30,000 general street bonds.

Students Off for Contest.

Ralph Lavine, Robert Sher and Frank E. Vitz, all of the local normal school, left yesterday for Macomb, Ill., where Lavine will represent the Wisconsin normal schools in the interstate oratorical contest. Lavine recently won the state contest at Stevens Point, his address being "Modern Nationalism." Sher was elected president of the interstate contest. Vitz is taking the place of Miss Nona McQuilken as coach. Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and Wisconsin will be represented.

Gilty of Liquor Charge.

Stanley Backowski, 2808 Belknap street, was arraigned in municipal court yesterday morning, charged with violating the city liquor ordinance. He pleaded not guilty. A jury returned a verdict of guilty and Backowski was fined $205 with the alternative of going to the county work house for four months.

Poultry Men Meet.

The Douglas County Poultry association met at the South Superior Commercial club, Fifty-sixth street and Tower avenue, last night. A discussion of the proper method of raising various breeds of poultry was held. This meeting was one of the joint sessions sponsored by the association to create an interest in raising poultry, according to John Tyson, secretary. A luncheon was served following the meeting.

Postal Workers Praised.

"The Superior letter carriers are establishing enviable records in connection with the national 'postal improvement week'" according to Postmaster F. S. Thompson yesterday. "All indications point to a successful week at this office, as members of the staff are making every effort to observe the postal laws and regulations."
