

New Citizens Are Invited to Be Guests of Lodge

Covenant lodge, B'nai B'rith, will act as host with the Americanization committee of Duluth in entertaining the May class of newly-naturalized citizens at a dinner

Tuesday at Covenant hall, 12 East Superior street.

Forty new citizens will be the guests at the dinner at 6:30 o'clock, arrangements for which are being made by both the Americanization committee and B'nai B'rith.

Judge Bert Fesler, chairman of the Americanization committee, will preside. The program follows:

Music by the recreational department orchestra; invocation by Rabbi L. Lebendiger; flag raising by Boy Scouts; pledge of allegiance by American Legion; address of welcome in behalf of the B'nai B'rith, Rabbi Alvon S. Luchs; address, "The Jury Duty of a Citizen," Warren E.

Greene; presentation of American flags by the Legion, Ralph Dunning; presentation of diplomas, E. A. Silberstein.

---