

SO-CIETY

Benefit Theater Performances
Popular With Women's Guilds
Desiring to Raise More Money

Informal Parties for Guests, Many Visiting Girls Enliven Social Set Activities
During Summer.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD inaugurated something new in money raising endeavors in Duluth when they took over the Orpheum theater for a benefit performance for their new parish house fund. The Trinity guild, circle No. 2, are to sponsor the performance of Martha Hedman in "The Roomerang" on June 26, and the announcement was made during the week, through the Hill Top Social Workers of which committee Mrs. Whitney Wall is chairman, had taken over the sale of tickets for Martha Hedman's new play on the night of Monday, July 10.

The proceeds will be used in furnishing the Corpus Christi house so that a home for delinquent girls may be operated there under the direction of the Dominican Terriers.

Receipts of Ball.

MRS. C. C. TEARE, who is leaving during the week, to accompany her husband, Col. C. C. Teare to San Francisco where he will be a delegate from the local post to the national convention of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, reported yesterday that with the returns nearly all in the benefit ball given on May 12 at the Armory for the disabled veterans had netted $1,500. The receipts were nearly all turned over to the post for distribution, as the expenses were unusually small.

SEVERAL DELIGHTFUL affairs have been given during the last week for Miss Edith Canfield, bride elect of this month.

On Friday afternoon, June 9, Mrs. E. E. Davis and Mrs. H. J. Drew, of Cloquet, entertained at the home of Mrs. Davis.

Wednesday evening of this week Mrs. W. F. Davis, of Cloquet, entertained, Miss Amy Collins, of Duluth, entertained at four tables of bridge at the home of Mrs. Davis, 534 Fourth street.

On Thursday evening Mrs. J. R. Campbell and daughters, 612 Lake avenue North, entertained a prettily appointed party in honor of Miss Canfield.

Friday afternoon of this week Miss Edna Stevens, of Cloquet, entertained for Miss Canfield at her home on Sixth street. Bridge was played.

Several affairs have been planned for Miss Canfield during the coming week.

KNOX WINTON arrived yesterday to be the guest of his mother Mrs. W. C. Winton of East First street. Mrs. Frederick Champ (Francis W. Winton) is leaving today for Cincinnati where she will study music.

MISS CAROLYN MARSHALL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Marshall of Greyson road arrived Friday from New York, to spend the summer with her parents.

CHARLES FRAKER, son of Mrs. L. D. Fraker, and Reginald Cowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Cowen, departed for Minneapolis on Friday.

MAURICE HART returned during the week from Minneapolis where he is a student at the University of Minnesota to pass the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hart, East Superior street.

THE LADIES of the Adas Israel congregation will give their first annual dance, on Tuesday night at the Odd Fellows' hall, corner of Lake avenue and First street.

ONE of the prettiest of the summer weddings in Eveleth was solemnized at St. Patrick's church on Thursday, June 8, at 8 a. m. when Miss Loretta Ryan of Eveleth became the bride of James E. Finucan. Rev. Father Maloney officiated. The bride wore coral cotton crepe with a picture hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Pauline Ryan, sister of the bride, was gowned in turquoise blue cotton crepe with a hat to match and a corsage bouquet of pink roses and sweetpeas. The bridegroom was attended by John Finucan. A wedding breakfast was served at noon to the immediate relatives and friends. The house was decorated with white and pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Finucan left Thursday afternoon for Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul. They will be at home after July 1.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Ryan of Marble, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foneroy and daughter, Elleen of Duluth, Mrs. Connors of Virginia and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hesse of Duluth.

A DANCE will be given by the degree team of Court Eastern Star, No. 86, United Order of Foresters at

Young Girl to Appear in Recital

MISS JULIA WALDO.

ONE of the pupils of the Bradbury School of Music who is to appear in their pupils' recital tomorrow night is Miss Waldo, a member of this year's graduating class at the Central high school.

Forester hall, Thursday evening, June 27.

SHELDEN HIBBARD, son of Mrs. L. E. Hubbard of Jefferson street, who is a student at the University of Minnesota, arrived home Wednesday to spend the summer with his mother.

MRS. W. C. SARGENT of London road returned Friday after spending several weeks at Danbury, Wis.

MAURICE MEAGHER, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Meagher of London road returned to his home last Monday after spending the year at St. John's Military academy.

IN HONOR of Miss Allen Weister, a bride elect, Miss May Kline, and Miss Esther Abrahamson will give a luncheon on Friday.

MRS. HOMER COLLINS, and daughter, Gertrude will arrive by boat on Friday. Mrs. Collins was expected to attend the graduation of Gertrude from Dana Hall.

MISS WINIFRED CRAWFORD, well-known as a musician, formerly of Duluth, but now of Minneapolis:

who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Crawford of East First street, left Thursday to fill a summer engagement in Glacier National park as cellist in the Reinmuth trio.

MR. AND MRS. G. N. STEVENSON of Glenwood street, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Thursday evening. At a table effectively decorated with candles, and a center-piece of daisies, 20 people were served. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Alm, and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Scott, and children. They drove down from Grand Marais on Tuesday and returned yesterday.

EARL SHERMAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sherman of West Third street, who has been attending Lawrence college for the last year has returned home to pass the summer months.

THE LADIES' AID of St. John the Evangelist Catholic church at Woodland, gave a reception last Tuesday evening in honor of their returned pastor Rev. Michael Boland and Rev. Father O'Gorman, who will soon be leaving to visit his parents in Europe. They presented Father O'Gorman with a purse. The following program was given during the evening.

Piano Solo..... Margaret Glenn Voeck Solo..... Marion Spronitz Scotch Dance. Mae Katherine Galvin Violin Solo..... Miss Florence Spain Irish Jig..... Virginia Hennessey Accompanied by Fatsy Ryan. Solo..... Miss O'Neill Marie French Piano Solo..... Gail M. Harris

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED ROMAN and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Roman have returned from a visit in Minneapolis where they attended the commencement exercises at the University of Minnesota. Edgar Roman was a member of this year's graduating class from the college of dentistry.

MISS DOROTHY and Miss Ruth Buehlich of Tenth avenue East will leave Monday for Winona where they will attend the wedding of Miss Genevieve Clerdon. They will be out of town about a week.

MRS. G. LUTZ of Tenth avenue East, returned yesterday from St. Paul and Minneapolis where she attended a convention of the U. A. R. auxiliaries.

MRS. WILLIAM BEATON of McCulloch returned Friday evening from Minneapolis. Her son Ernest came with her.

MRS. JAMES VIVIAN of East Fourth street had as her guest for the week end Miss Elizabeth Doak of Minneapolis, who is state treasurer of the Business and Professional Women's clubs.

BREEDERS TO PICNIC.

Iron River, Wis. June 17.—(Special)—The Bayfield County Holstein Breeders' association will hold its annual picnic on the M. C. Larson farm in the town of Centuria Tuesday. The business session will begin at 10:30 a. m. A. O. Collette of state animal husbandry department, who has had wide experience in Holstein cattle, and George Briggs known as "Soy-bean Briggs" will be among the speakers on the program.

Violin lessons at eight cents each are available to the pupils of one London school.

Young Girl on Lighthouse Program

MISS ETHEL BARNARD.

ONE of the younger artists to appear on the program at the Membership tea to be given at the Lighthouse Friday afternoon in celebration of the third birthday of the institution will be Miss Barnard. Mrs. J. McKindley has arranged a program of unusual merit for the occasion.

Some of the cod lines used in the fishing industry measure 7,000 fathoms long, or about 80 ordinary miles.