

Weddings

MISS KATHRYN MEYERS became the bride of Fred H. Weinberg at a simple home wedding Sunday afternoon at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Meyers, East Seventh street. Rabbi I. Teplitz performed the ceremony at 5 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families only.

The bride wore a gown of white canton crepe draped with Spanish lace, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Sara Weinberg, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her frock was of turquoise blue crepe satin, and her flowers were a color nial arrangement of roses and sweet-peas. Harry Segal was Mr. Weinberg's attendant.

Mr. and Mrs. Weinberg left Sunday night for a short trip, after which they will return to Duluth to make their home. They have taken an apartment in the Granville for the summer.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD JOHN DICKINSON left Sunday morning for Winnipeg, where they will be passengers on the special sight-seeing train which left there yesterday on its maiden trip through western Canada. They will continue their trip down the western coast to San Francisco, arriving there in time to attend the Shriners' convention.

Mrs. Dickinson was formerly Miss Myrtle E. Williams and their marriage was an event of Saturday night, when Dr. A. W. Ryan, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Williams, West Third street. One hundred guests witnessed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception. Pink and white flowers were combined with ferns in the decorations of the house.

THE MARRIAGE of Miss Mary Lorentia Alexander, daughter of D. C. Alexander of Duluth, and Edmond T. McCann, son of J. F. McCann of Dubuque, Iowa, took place Thursday morning at St. Lawrence church, Minneapolis, at 9 o'clock. Rev. A. C. Allard, pastor of the church read the service. Miss Avanalle Smith was the maid of honor and John McCann was the best man. Little Mary Virginia McLaughlin, in a frock of white organdie, and a wreath of lilies of the valley as a hair ornament, was the flower girl. She carried a basket of Ophelia roses and white sweet-peas. Miss Smith wore a gown of orchid colored crepe de chine with a hat to match. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses and white sweetpeas.

The bride was gowned in white canton crepe elaborated in seed pearls and her caped shaped veil was held in place with a band of orange blossoms and pearls. A shower of Bride roses, lilies of the valley and white sweetpeas formed the bouquet that she carried.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Leo McLaughlin, 3227 Emerson avenue South. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. McCann left Thursday afternoon for a wedding trip to Lake Maccanic and will be at home after June 15 in Minneapolis.

MISS ETHEL CAMPBELL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Campbell, East First street, and James Kraft Underhill were married at a pretty home wedding Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. George Wells Arms of the First Presbyterian church read the service, using the impressive old English ring ceremony. The bride was lovely in a gown of canton crepe and she wore a corsage bouquet of rosebuds and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Grace Cameron of Cloquet, who wore pink georgette with a corsage of pink roses and sweetpeas. Frederick Gambla of Duluth was the bridegroom's attendant.

Following the ceremony, there was an informal reception and a buffet luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Underhill left for a short trip and they will be at home in Munger terrace after July 1.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. G. W. Rodenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rodenberg and son, George, William Rodenberg and Jack Hardiman of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Underhill, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redfield Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntosh of Cloquet, and Mrs. J. C. Patterson of Superior.
