

Social Happenings

MISS ESTHER LOUNSBERRY, Twenty-first avenue East, will entertain at her home this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. E. Busey Krebs of Lynchburg, Va., who with her small daughter, Eleanor Marie, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. A. Keyes, East Third street. Mrs. Krebs and her little daughter will leave tomorrow for their home after a six weeks' visit here.

★ ★ ★

A DELIGHTFUL garden tea on her lawn was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. George Swift, East First street, for a group of her friends.

★ ★ ★

AMONG those who will entertain at the club dinner dance at the Northland Country club tonight are Mr. and Mrs. Gwin Whitney and Albert Marshall.

★ ★ ★

MRS. DANA C. ROOD and Miss Marcia Rood have issued cards for an at home which they are giving Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at the family residence on East Second street.

★ ★ ★

THIRTY COUPLES enjoyed the sailing party which followed a picnic supper at the Oatka branch of the Boat club on Tuesday night.

★ ★ ★

THE SISTERHOOD of the Hebrew institute held their first annual picnic and dance Monday afternoon and evening. To Mrs. H. Segal, chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Ida Cook, Mrs. Ben Goldish and Mrs. G. Averbrook, much credit is due for the success of the affair.

★ ★ ★

SEVENTY-FIVE GUESTS shared the hospitality of Mrs. G. Palmer Harbison when she entertained at bridge at the Business and Professional Women's club yesterday afternoon. Sharing honors were the Misses Eleanor Whitecomb and Kittle Goodnow of Norwalk, Ohio, and Miss Charlotte Butler of Toledo, who are her house guests. Garden flowers made delightful decorations for the rooms where bridge, followed by tea, was played at 18 tables.

★ ★ ★

A DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON of yesterday was that at which Mrs. Earle Hunner presided at the Northland Country club in honor of her guest, Mrs. Leonard Larson of Missoula, Mont., and Mrs. Edward A. Miller, who is the guest of Mrs. Samuel E. Matter. Tangerine shades predominated in the floral decorations for the six small tables at which the guests were seated for luncheon. Bridge was played during the afternoon.

★ ★ ★

MRS. A. R. BOCK, East Superior street, was hostess at luncheon yesterday honoring Mrs. Newman of Hibbing who is a guest in the city. Covers were laid for 12 guests.

★ ★ ★

MISS HELEN and Virginia Fryberger, Columbus avenue, will be hostesses at luncheon at their home tomorrow afternoon at which they will compliment Miss Crystelle Waggoner of Wichita Falls, Texas, who accompanied Miss Virginia on her return yesterday from Colorado Springs and who will be a guest at their home.
