

Social Happenings

MISS MARGARET MIX, Greysolon road, will entertain at luncheon and bridge at the Kitchi Gammi club Thursday afternoon. Twenty-five guests will share her hospitality.

MRS. H. F. SALYARDS, East First street, entertained informally at bridge at her home yesterday afternoon.

MRS. ROBERT SPIEGEL, London road, will be hostess at the Coolshanagh Inn today in compliment to Miss Josephine Carey, who sails Sept. 3, on the Roosevelt for Europe.

MINNEAPOLIS matrons who have both literary and political interests were hostesses at a luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Red Elephant tea room in Minneapolis, honoring Mrs. A. T. Banning jr., (Margaret Culkin Banning), Kent road, who is in Minneapolis for the day of publication of her third novel, "The Spellbinders." Mrs. Banning gave a short talk following lunch with special mention of subjects akin to the entrance of women into politics and her relation to her traditional affairs of days prior to the Nineteenth amendment.

MRS. DAVE HARRIS, North Central avenue, entertained at a bridge luncheon at her home, complimenting her house guest Mrs. L. Winer of St. Paul. Favors were won by Mrs. Levine, Mrs. Harry Vertelney and Mrs. J. M. Oreckowsky. Mrs. Winer was the recipient of the guest prize.

MISS MARGARET PAINE of Buffalo, N. Y., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Hoopes, and Miss Jean Hausib of Akron, Ohio, who is the guest of Miss Ruby Morterud, shared honors at the dinner which Mrs. S. Morterud gave at Pike lake last night.