

City in Tabloid

Hearing Set for Tuesday.

Morris E. Latta, charged with disorderly conduct, will be given a hearing in municipal court Tuesday.

Speeding Charge Dismissed.

Charges of reckless driving of an automobile booked in municipal court against John Ranta, were dismissed yesterday on motion of H. E. Weinberg, city prosecutor. Charles S. Draper, age 33, charged with turning his car before approaching a street crossing was given a suspended sentence on payment of $2 court costs.

County Vehicles Lettered.

County owned motor vehicles are rapidly being lettered as provided in a resolution adopted recently by the board of county commissioners. The vehicles are being designated with gold letters one and one-fourth inches high. The resolution adopted provides that all county vehicles, under the jurisdiction of the county board be lettered with "St. Louis County" and the department which is operating the vehicle.

KENT-HORN CO., INC.

Haynes distributors, in their new location, 701 East Superior street, Hemlock 555.—Adv.

Estate Petitions Filed.

Petitions for administration of three estates were filed in probate court yesterday. Lydia M. Stevens left an estate valued at $2,000; Frank C. Rich, $300 and Stella Stevens Maxwell, $2,000.

Fire Settlements Filed.

Stipulation for settlements in six forest fire cases were filed in district court yesterday. The settlements provide for payments totaling $6,207.50. The following will receive the payments: Lena Moe, $1,700; Jacob Lehtinen, $1,575; Hattie Martin, $137.50; Frank Chalberg, $1,375; Andrew Anderson, $550; George O. Scrabeck, $870.

Examiners Check County Records.

Six examiners headed by E. L. Erickson of the state public examiner's office, are conducting the annual examination of the county offices. The work will be completed within the next week. The examiners are X. A. Honer, B. O. Lee, Miss E. M. Baker, Mrs. B. Eastman, Mrs. H. Robinson, and J. T. Langlais.