

City in Tabloid

Yeomen to Elect.

Headquarters homestead No. 3726 Brotherhood of American Yeomen, will hold its annual election of officers at Woodman hall, Twenty-first avenue West and First street tomorrow night.

Faces Larceny Charge.

Ray Martin must appear in municipal court Friday to answer charges of larceny in the first degree on two separate counts. He is alleged to have entered the home of John Olson and taken $50 value in currency and jewelry.

Alleged Auto Thief Returned.

William V. Bauman, arrested with a stolen automobile in his possession, was brought back from St. Paul by Sheriff Frank L. Magie and is bound over to the grand jury on $1,000 bond. He waived examination in municipal court.

Stockholders Must Pay.

Stockholders in the defunct E. F. Zimmerman company must pay an assessment amounting to 100 per cent of the stock owned in the company, according to an order signed by Judge Bert Mesler and filed in district court yesterday. The stockholders are F. L. Cowen, E. F. Zimmerman, A. B. Coates, Kate C. Haley and H. A. Whitaker. E. G. Robie, receiver, is directed to collect the assessments.

Siegel Leaves $48,000.

Jacob D. Siegel left an estate valued at $48,000, according to a petition filed in probate court yesterday. Cassel Marcus of Superior is named administrator by the petitioner.
