

Jewish Women Organize Virginia Hadassah Society

Virginia, Sept. 26.—(Special.)—Virginia Jewish women this afternoon, under the direction of Miss Minnie Isaacs of Louisville, Ky., organized an Hadassah society to be affiliated with the National Hadassah society. The meeting was held in the Knael Abraham Synagogue. Mrs. Ben Milavetz presided. Miss Isaac, national organizer of the society, explained its work and aims. Miss Freler, of Eveleth, who returned about a year ago from an extended stay in Palestine, also spoke.

Plans were made to form a Junior Hadassah society. A meeting of Jewish girls will be held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Ben Milavetz. Miss Isaac has organized branches in Eveleth and expects to go to Chisholm and Hibbing the latter part of the week.

The National Hadassah is the Women's Zionist organization of America. It has 15,000 members. The society maintains four hospitals in Palestine and a training school for nurses in Jerusalem. The society supports more than 2,000 orphans.
