

Getting Rid of the Small Change.

I announced the formation of this firm, little thinking that its dissolution would come so soon. Clipping from Legal News sent me by Batty Atty:

Announcing the dissolution of the law firm of

Finesilver, Copperman & Goldish, effective Jan. 1, 1930.

Mr. Finesilver and Mr. Goldish will retain the present offices.

Batty Atty questions the starting of the new year with a repudiation of the counsel "Take care of the coppers and the silver and gold will take care of themselves."
