Assessor James Talked
At Rotary Wednesday.

Dr. John E. Thompson had charge of the meeting of the Ely Rotary Club on Wednesday evening as chairman of the Community Service Committee. He had secured the services of City Assessor Fred B. James who in a half-hour address quoted figures showing how the tax rate in Ely had mounted since 1913.
His talk was very educational and after finishing several of those present bombarded Mr. James with questions tending towards more information on this vital subject. He knows taxes from a to a and answered all inquiries. To further clinch his points he left with the members copies of figures showing valuations, expenditures and tax rates for the past nineteen years.

The members of the Cioquet Club will

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father and husband, Steve Golobich, who passed away two years ago, June 1, 1930.
Gone dear father, gone forever;
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember, None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still;
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.
Sadly missed by:
Mrs. Steve Golobich and Children.

AUXILIARY
POPPY SALE

Very Successful Sale Conducted Under Direction of Mrs. Rex Larson.

This year's poppy sale on Saturday conducted under the direction of Mrs.
Rex Larson and her capable committee of saleswomen was a most successful event and all poppies were disposed of.
The total receipts for the sale were $11.67 for which those in charge thank the people most kindly.

Those in charge of the sale and who canvassed the city were Auxiliary members Edith Chinn, Ella Klobuchar, Sadie Maki, Mary Smith, Adeline Knutson, Silvi Luthanen, Salma Aljala, Sarah Norby, Anna Novak, Clara Handberg, Myrtle Thompson, Vernice Brownell, Isabel Thompson, Bess Santo, Jennie Kayuta, Mary Poshak, Ida Erickson, Helen Carlson, Vera Kotchevar, Signa Thielman, Lillian O'Jala, Edith Ellesen and Gustava Gianotti.

These poppies are the handwork of disabled soldiers in the hospitals who are paid for their manufacture during the year. They met with a ready sale among our generous people. No price was set for the flowers and the Auxiliary ladies gladly accepted anything offered.

The proceeds of the poppy sales are used for hospitalization work among the disabled and furnish them with little necessities to make life more bearable.
If the ladies missed you on Saturday, don't be discouraged. Send in a few cents to the Auxiliary and get on the list.

Manganese Tariff
Killed for Present.

Refusal of the senate to place a protective tariff on manganese ore has prevented the revival of this mining industry in Minnesota, chief source of the manganese supply in America, according to George H. Crosby of Duluth, who has just returned from Washington.

The proposed tariff on manganese coming from Russia, Chile and Cuba would have placed the Minnesota ore in competition and given work to hundreds of miners in this state, Mr.
Crosby points out. As a result of the senate action, the entire issue is dead for the present, he said.

"Manganese ore is needed by the steel industry and the Minnesota supply can and should be used, in place of the ore shipped into this country," Mr.
Crosby added. "But we cannot compete with the forced and cheap labor of the foreign countries, and the refusal of the senate to place a tariff on the product has prevented a general movement to restore the industry. It would have aided the unemployment situation in Minnesota, as well as in other states, where there is a supply of the ore."

Frederick Paine, assistant secretary of war, also urged the tariff as a means of restoring the industry and protecting the nation's supply of manganese ore in the event of war. He appeared before the senate finance committee before the measure was later turned down by the senate.

"Say, what are you expecting of the

Call Softened by Love

In the courting season the bluejay

It has been said of Gladstone, when he was chancellor of the exchequer, that he could envelop prosaic facts and figures in such a mist of romance as to carry his listeners along with the sheer fascination of the story.
