As we go to press, the Sharkey-Carnera brawl is but a few hours away. Sharkey is the favorite in the betting but a lot of "wise money" is being put on Carnera. Having an advantage in weight, height, reach and youth, Carnera has a fine chance of winning the title from Sharkey. The champion has been inactive for some time while Carnera has been doing plenty of fighting. If condition counts Carnera should win.

Being better conditioned, Carnera should be able to stand any pace that Sharkey sets and should take the sailor's blows without slowing up too much. Sharkey is rated as a smart fighter and he'll have to use every hit of his smartness in order to take the "Man Mountain."
