Bismarck Homemakers' Club Makes Annual Picnic Plans

Mrs. L. P. Wedge and Mrs. Paul B. Schacht Win Attendance Prizes

Mrs. Emil Benesh, chairman for the annual picnic which will be held at Kiwanis park Sunday, August 16, reported progress made in her plans when the Bismarck Homemakers' club held its August meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. E. Roberts five miles south of the city and reviewed the year which is just closing. Sixteen members answered roll call.

The annual report read by Mrs. Henry Gierke, secretary, showed that Mrs. L. P. Wedge and Mrs. Paul B. Schacht had made perfect attendance records. Both were presented with prizes.

Each club member has donated a towel and was clothed in a sheet and pillow case set to Camp Grassick during the summer, it was reported. Mrs. Joseph Kirby presented a lesson on "Celebrating the Child's Success."

Mrs. Kirby will entertain the September 13 meeting at her home, 827 Thirteenth St.

Carol Steen Chooses August Wedding Date

Wednesday, August 21, has been chosen as the wedding day of Miss Carol Steen, daughter of Mrs. I. N. Steen of Mandan and the late Mr. Steen, and Robert Chesworth, Washington, D. C. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brenden, brother-in-law and sister-in-law, will be the scene of the wedding.

Following their marriage the couple will make their home in the Chesworth apartments, Washington, D. C. Mr. Chesworth is employed in the personnel division of the AAA, CCC and resettlement administration. Miss Steen taught at Hebron during the last term.

Mr. Chesworth, who has been visiting at Mandan, is spending the present week at Miles City, Mont., with his parents.

Mrs. Sorenson Wins Show Attendance Gift

Mrs. Arthur W. Sorenson, 615 Fifth St., won the large pottery vase donated by Webb Brothers which was given away as the attendance prize at the close of the Bismarck garden club's 1935 fall show Saturday night. Garden club officials estimate that 500 visitors attended the exhibition on the final evening.

Leo Kocher of Kersey, Pa., Miss Lydia Billewicz of Worcester, Mass., and Miss Josephine Billewicz of Niagara Falls, N. Y., visited this weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Koch, 1024 Fourth St. The gentlemen are brothers. On Tuesday morning the guests will continue their trip to Saskatoon, Sask., Can., to attend the golden anniversary celebration of the parents of the Misses Billewicz.

New residents of Mandan are Capt. F. H. Larren of the National Army, Mrs. Larren and their children, Frank and Joan, who arrived this weekend from Red Wing, Minn. Captain Larren will be in charge of the Mandan citadel succeeding Capt. Margaret Klennert, who was transferred to Bismarck.

Members of the Fred Swenson family, 416 Thayer avenue, have received word of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brandt (Thelma Swenson) of Brookfield, Mo., Saturday. The baby has been named Judith Rae. Mrs. Swenson left for Brookfield August 2 and will remain there until about August 24.

Bruce Murphy arrived here this weekend from Oklahoma City, Okla., for a 10-day visit with his father, R. B. Murphy, and sister, Miss Rita Murphy, of 213 Avenue A West. Mr. Murphy is employed by the Reconstruction Finance corporation and travels extensively in his work.

Miss LaVonne Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Young of the town, returned Saturday from a month's visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilcox, who are former residents of Cannonball, at Lakeville, Minn. She also visited with an aunt in Minneapolis.

Rev. Father Robert A. Feehan, pastor of St. Mary's pro-cathedral, left Monday noon for Brandon, Minn., where he is to pass the week visiting with Rev. Father A. J. Kinsula, a seminary classmate.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gierke, 318 Eighth St., will leave Wednesday evening to spend the remainder of the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gierke, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Engdahl, all of near Baldwin.

Miss Dorothy Moore, 216 Park St., left Saturday for Chicago where she is to spend a few days visiting friends and relatives. Miss Moore is secretary to H. O. Saxvik, superintendent of schools.

Miss Hazel Larson, employed by the works progress administration office, spent the week-end in Devils Lake, where she worked before coming to Bismarck.

C. W. Baker, Minot, was the weekend guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Baker, 602 Third St.

Attend Ceremonial at Berthold Reservation

Mrs. Florence H. Davis, Miss Alden Hewitt and James Green and son, Wallace, made up a party motoring to the Fort Berthold Indian reservation Friday evening to witness the ceremonial dances of the Arickara Indians which are being staged at that time and featured the famous cedar tree ceremony, which is significant of longevity. Mrs. Davis represented the North Dakota Historical Society of which she is librarian. Mr. Green and his son represented the Bismarck Indian school and Miss Hewitt went in her capacity as associate supervisor of elementary schools for the field service, Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Mrs. Cole Is Hostess For Miss Jean McLain

Mrs. W. E. Cole, 210 Park St., was hostess at a luncheon at 10 o'clock Friday afternoon in compliment to her house guest, Miss Jean McLain of Lisbon, who visited here from Thursday until Monday. Mrs. Cole invited 20 young girls and was assisted during the tea by the Misses Dorothy Moore and Margaret Will. Garden flowers adorned the room and the table. Miss McLain is the daughter of Dr. L. McLain, commandant of the Old Soldiers' home at Lisbon, and was graduated this spring from All Saints S. D.

Kappa Sigma Alumni Hold August Function

The dancing party which the Kappa Sigma alumni chapter gave at the Municipal golf club house Saturday evening to mark the organization's August gathering was attended by approximately 35 couples, several of whom being out-of-town members of the fraternity and their guests. Among those present were Dr. W. B. Shepard and A. Roessler of Linton, Maurice Diehl and Henry Frank of Mandan, Thomas Barger of Minot and William Frantz of Lidgerwood. Members of the alumni chapter, active and pledged Kappa Sigma members and a few other guests were invited. Elmer Benzer and Frank Van Kent made the party arrangements.

Mrs. E. T. Burke Is Capital City Visitor

Mrs. E. T. Burke of Washington, D. C., who resided here for 12 years while her husband served as a supreme court justice, arrived in Bismarck Sunday evening for a two-day visit and is stopping at the Grand Pacific hotel. A number of informal social affairs have been planned by her friends.

Mrs. Burke came here from Valley City where she had been the house guest of the Misses Minnie and Hazel Nielson for several days and where she also was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Stiles. Valley City hostesses gave many teas, dinners, breakfasts, picnics and other gatherings for Mrs. Burke, who is the daughter of early pioneers of Barnes county, and who grew to womanhood and was married in Valley City. Among the affairs was a dinner for former members of the Original Donsen club to which Mrs. Burke belonged before her marriage.

From Bismarck Mrs. Burke will go to Inwood Inn on Gull Lake, near Brainerd, Minn. There she will visit her son's wife, Mrs. Charles Getchell Burke, and her daughters, who are guests at the resort for several weeks while Mr. Burke is getting established in his new radio advertising position in Chicago. Mr. Burke recently was transferred from Kansas City, Mo., to his new location.

Mrs. W. E. Fitzsimmons of St. Paul, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zuger, 501 Thayer avenue, west, for a week, left for her home on Sunday. At the Sunday morning service, Mrs. Fitzsimmons was guest soloist at the Methodist Episcopal church. Other guests at the Zuger home last week were Mrs. John D. Key and son, John, Jr., and Paul, of El Centro, Calif., who remained from Thursday until Saturday and came here after visiting relatives at Fargo. From Bismarck they went to Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Key is Mr. Zuger's niece.

Word has come that Brennan B. Davis, son of Mrs. Florence H. Davis, 216 Fourth St., who left recently for Columbus, Ohio, to report for U. S. forestry service duty, has been stationed at McArthur in Vinton county of that state. Mr. Davis is one of 12 supervisors in charge of Civilian Conservation corps work in the McArthur area and received his appointment after passing government examination. He is a graduate of the school of forestry at the University of Idaho at Moscow.

Miss Dorothy Moore, 216 Park St., left Saturday for Chicago where she is to spend a few days visiting friends and relatives. Miss Moore is secretary to H. O. Saxvik, superintendent of schools.

Miss Hazel Larson, employed by the works progress administration office, spent the week-end in Devils Lake, where she worked before coming to Bismarck.

C. W. Baker, Minot, was the weekend guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Baker, 602 Third St.

Miss Hilda McDonnell, Person Court, has resumed her work at Dr. W. L. Diven's office after vacationing since July 27 at the home of her mother, Mrs. Angus McDonnell, Devils Lake. Miss McDonnell and her sister, Miss Hilda McDonnell, of Chicago, were here on vacation at the same time, were honored at a party for 12 guests given last week by Miss Catherine Degnan and Mrs. Emily Link.

THOMPSON TO HEAD MASONIC EDUCATION

'World Peace—How Attained' Is Topic for Coming Year's Oratorical Contest

Fargo, N. D., Aug. 12.—(P)—Masonic plans for the next year were completed here at a meeting of the North Dakota grand lodge committee on Masonic service and education. Grand Master Fred G. Kneeland of Bismarck was elected chairman and Dr. W. J. Hutcheson of Fargo, retired executive secretary. Other members of the committee are Paul B. Griffith of Grand Forks, Andrew L. Carr of Hettinger, Judge W. H. Hutchinson of La Moure, deputy grand master, Fred G. Kneeland of Jamestown, Charles M. Pollock, senior grand warden, W. L. Stockwell of Fargo, grand secretary and ex-officio member, and Robert E. Trousdale of Minot.

Three lodges will celebrate their 50th anniversary during the year. They are Bathgate No. 25, anchor No. 25 at Minot and Euclid at Lakota. The topic of this year's oratorical contest will be "world peace—how attained," which will be open to all junior and senior high school students. The state contest will be held at Fargo next June 15.

Lodges throughout the state will hold meetings at the same hour on Dec. 10, when an address by the grand master will be presented. The theme of the special meeting will be "forward together, brethren."

BISMARCK TRIBUNE PATTERNS

(SEND FOR THIS PATTERN)
FALL CHIC FROM ANNE ADAMS PATTERN

Simple—but oh, so chic and slenderizing! You'll feel proud as a peacock when you've made this new Anne Adams frock. It's shown here in corded celanese crepe of Persian green; but it would be effective in any fabric that has high surface interest. See how cleverly the straight front panel is cut crosswise of the material to give variety, and play up the antique gold fringe buttons and buckle. Note the novel sleeve that cuts its fullness into a neat wrist band. The collar? Yes, that's new too. And delightfully youthful... made of white puffed tulle and tulle. This Anne Adams frock is ideal for street wear, yet dressy enough for bridge. Available in sizes 12 to 20 and 30 to 42.

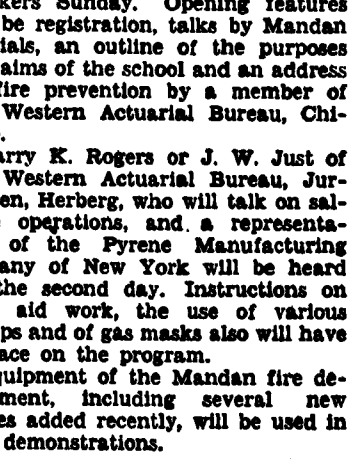

Send 15c today for pattern X2351 to The Bismarck Tribune, Pattern Department, 345 West 17th Street, New York, N. Y.
