

A Record of Their Romance

By means of a record played at a recent dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bishop of Burlingame, friends of Miss Virginia Margaret Owen learned that she's engaged to David Grant Shippley. Miss Owen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Owen of Oakland and her fiancé is the son of the David Shipples of San Francisco, formerly of San Jose. The wedding will take place early next year.

LIEUTENANT AND MRS. ARTHUR J. CLEMENT
The former Betty Bermudez was married in New Orleans
(See adjoining story)

New Orleans Nuptials

Betty Bermudez It Lt. Arthur Clement's Bride

Now making their home in Houma, La., are the recently married Lieutenant Arthur J. Clement Jr., U. S. N. R., and his wife, whose wedding took place on August 3 in New Orleans.

The pretty bride is the former Miss Betty Bermudez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Bermudez of San Francisco, who went East for the ceremony.

The bride chose for her nuptials a becoming gown of white lace, with which she wore a Mary Stuart cap of tulle and a tulle veil and carried a prayer book with a gardenia marker.

Mrs. Herbert Taylor, the matron of honor and only attendant for the bride, was in aquamarine chiffon. Clay Calhoun stood with the benedict as best man.

Bride in Velvet

Mary Jeanette Fulmer and Robert Winfield Wood Were Recently Wed

Since August 15, the date of their marriage, Mary Jeanette Fulmer and Robert Winfield Wood have been honeymooning in Marin county. Their future home will be in Berkeley where the young bridegroom will continue with his studies for the ministry at the Pacific School of Religion.

Dr. Vere V. Loper conducted the services at the First Congregational Church in Berkeley. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Fulmer of Berkeley, was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she wore a medieval gown of soft transparent velvet, which was fashioned with a long fitted bodice, a full skirt and a short train. Her fingertip length veil was fastened to a coronet of twisted white velvet, and her bouquet was of magnolia blossoms and bouvardia.

The bridal party included the bridegroom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Carlton Wood, matron of honor, and Mrs. Donald S. MacFarlane Jr., Mrs. Glen Bailey; Mrs. Robert Johnson and Miss Katherine Henck, the bridesmaids. Carlton Wood was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Fred Prussner, Dayton Axtell, Norman Rau and Ford Forsyth.

The justweds were graduated last year from the University of California. The new Mrs. Wood has since been taking graduate courses at the School of Applied Social Sciences at Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio. Her U. C. affiliations are Mortar Board, Prytaneean, Phi Beta Kappa, Panthe, Plymouth House and Pi Sigma Alpha, political honor society. She was also representative at large of the ASUC executive committee.

Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton E. Wood of Long Beach, is a member of Acacia Fraternity.

SHE'LL BE MARRIED NEXT MONTH
Miss Katherine Parsons' engagement was announced at a tea
(See adjoining story)

Told Under Birch Trees

Katherine Parsons to Wed September 26

Against a birch tree background in the gardens of the Burlingame home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus T. Parsons, last Sunday, Miss Katherine Parsons received over 100 guests at a tea party. Gardenia corsages bearing cards on which was "Harry and Kay, September 26" were presented to those attending by Katherine's youngest sister, Adele. Thus was revealed the news that Kay and Harry Tracy of San Francisco were engaged and will be married next month.

The bride-elect chose for her betrothal party a white gown, to which she pinned a red orchid corsage, and she was assisted in receiving by her mother and by Mrs. Stephen Tracy of Burlingame, mother of her fiancé. Katherine was graduated from UCLA and Harry received both his sheepskin and master's degree from Stanford University. Following the vow exchange, the couple plan to make their home in this city.

Mrs. Thomas Casey of San Francisco, aunt of the future benedict, and Mrs. Eugene Lochton of Corte Madera, aunt of the engaged girl, presided at the tea table, while assisting with serving were Miss Elizabeth Parsons, Kay's other sister, Mrs. Clifford Johnston, Harry's only sister, Mrs. Morgan Harris and Ensign Irene Simpson.

June Switzer Said 'I Do' to Lt. Stephens

It was in the garden of the Berkeley home of Professor and Mrs. Samuel C. May that Miss June Switzer, daughter of Mrs. Lewis Switzer of San Francisco, exchanged vows just two weeks ago with Lieutenant Roy W. Stephens, U. S. A.

Rev. David Stowe of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley officiated, before a colorful screen of fuchsias and begonias.

The bride wore a white crepe gown, fashioned with bishop sleeves and Russian embroidery, and carried a spray of white orchids. She was unattended.

The new Mrs. Stephens is the niece of Mrs. Samuel C. May and Lieutenant W. H. Hubbard, U. S. N. R., and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hubbard of Los Altos.

Carmel Honeymoon

Miriam Edith Hoffman Is Now the Bride of Jack Orville Wain, USA

A honeymoon to Carmel followed the recent wedding of Miss Miriam Edith Hoffman of San Francisco and Jack Orville Wain, army warrant officer (j.g.). Rabbi Maurice Goldstein solemnized the ritual in Temple Sherith Israel. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoffman, repeated her vows in a white satin gown fashioned with a fine lace yolk and high neck. Her illusion veil was fastened to a white satin Juliet cap. She carried a white Bible decorated with orchids and satin markers knotted with stephanotis. Maid of honor was Miss Miriam Diamond in a white marquisette frock with yellow begonias in her hair and in her bouquet. The bridesmaids were the Misses Sylvia Applebaum, Doris Brodofsky, Marion Silverstein, cousins of the bride, and Misses Francis Glicksman, Ruth Lachman, and Mrs. Dudley Steiner. Their dresses were like the maid of honor's but they carried apricot begonias. Little Harriet Brodofsky, also a cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

James Weinberg, cousin of the benedict, was assigned best man duties, and Mr. Hoffman gave his daughter in marriage. A dinner followed at the Fairmont Hotel's Gold Room.

Upon the couple's return from their honeymoon they will make their home in Little Rock, Ark. The bride, who was graduated from U. C. in '43, was vice-president of Phi Sigma Sigma sorority during her senior year. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Wain of Hollywood, is a graduate of U. C. L. A., class of '41. His fraternal affiliation is Pi Lambda Phi.

MISS YOLE LUCIA
Her engagement announced
(See adjoining story)

Yole Lucia Is The Bride-Elect Of Lt. Sameth

Miss Yole Lucia, daughter of Albert Lucia of this city, is telling friends that she has promised to wed Lieutenant Harris T. Sameth, now overseas with the Army air forces.

The wedding will take place when Lieutenant Sameth returns to San Francisco. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Sameth of Glen Ridge, N. J.

Miss Lucia is the sister of Mrs. L. N. Blanchini, Miss Inez Lucia and Louis Lucia.

Stephanie Jacobson Will Be Married

Announcement has been recently made by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley H. Jacobson of this city of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Stephanie Leone Jacobson, to Lieutenant Bert K. Hammel, U. S. A. Her fiancé, son of the H. B. Hammels of Cloverdale, Ore., is now at Camp Roberts.

Miss Jacobson is a student at San Francisco State College. No plans as yet have been made for the wedding.

Mrs. Jose Razura Honored at Tea

A farewell tea for Mrs. Jose R. Razura, who will leave soon for Guadalajara, Mexico, was held recently in the Rose Room of the Palace Hotel.

RANSOHOFFS

a life-time fur investment
PRECIOUS PERSIAN
450.

Choice skins... extremely durable.
Silky, black Persian pelts with a fine, firm curl.
Youthful in style, smart day and night...
a perfect year 'round fur for San Francisco.

Budget terms may be arranged.

Third Floor

*Simple... Soft
Elegant
Swathed drapery,
pencil-slim lines,
dresses with a custom-made look
of fine simplicity,
utter sophistication.
69.95 to 89.95*

Third Floor

... highlight of a new collection... in flame, coffee bean, electric blue or brown crepe. 69.95

