Garnet Mueller, James Krueger Exchange Vows

JAMES W. KRUEGER and his bride, the former Garnet Mueller, who were married Saturday at Mount Zion Lutheran church, are on a wedding trip to Florida. They will live on W. Keefe av., when they return. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William R. Mueller, N. 112th st., and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Krueger, N. 25th st.

As she repeated her nuptial vows after the Rev. James Bartsch, the bride wore a gown designed with a chintilly lace top and panels of lace down the front of the satin skirt. Seed pearls were scattered on the satin poke bonnet which held her fingertip veil. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of orchids, stephanotis and baby orchids.

Miss Lucille Wenzler, Pasadena blvd., was the maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Miss Beverly Henning, East Troy, Wis., and the flower girl, Carol Lou Mueller, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., niece of the bride.

Miss Wenzler was dressed in yellow and Miss Henning in blue. Their gowns had marquisette skirts and lace tops. The wreaths of flowers in their hair matched their bouquets of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Kenneth Krueger, N. 25th st., served his brother as best man. James Koehe, N. 19th st., Howard Krueger, Cedarburg, the bridegroom's cousin, and Harold Mueller, Fort Lauderdale, the bride's brother, completed the wedding party.

Mr. Erwin F. Nell is chairman of the golf committee of the women's organization at Westmoor Country club. Working with her are Mmes. Carl F. Scheid, Fred W. Rathkamp, John Goodale, Parry B. Smith, Arthur J. Nelson, A. R. Gieringer, E. Dexter Goodier and Francis McNabb.

Mr. Henry Fuller, N. Maryland av., will be hostess to Kappa Delta alumnae Tuesday. Her assistant hostesses will be Mmes. O. T. Wilson, E. J. Pierick and Richard Maxwell. The speaker will be Mrs. Olgert Riteris, a Latvian displaced person, who will tell about living under the Communist regime in Latvia. New officers of the group are: Miss Betty Bassford, W. Highland blvd., president; Mrs. Helen Weidenkopf, vice-president; Mrs. Cleo Bill, secretary; Miss Elinor Owen, treasurer, and Mrs. D. E. Hacker, publicity chairman.

The woman's auxiliary of Evangelical Deaconess hospital medical staff met for luncheon Monday at the Boston Store tearoom. Mrs. Raymond Book reviewed "White Witch Doctor," by Louise A. Stinefort.

Anthony Gahn, Ruth Sherburne in Nuptial Rites

FATHER LEO R. SCHIFFLER officiated at 10 a.m. Monday at the wedding of Miss Ruth Ann Sherburne and Anthony J. Gahn, jr. The rites were read at Holy Angels church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Sherburne, N. 15th st., wore an ivory satin gown. Lace formed a cuff around the square neckline and continued in a panel down the front of the dress. It was repeated in inserts over the hips. A bonnet of lace held her fingertip veil. In her bouquet were cymbidium orchids, lilies of the valley and ivy.

The attendants wore gowns of frosted white organza over lavender taffeta. The dresses had off the shoulder necklines and lavender sashes. The young women wore caps of ivory and carried bouquets of deep purple orchids and ivy.

Miss Barbara Mary Sherburne was maid of honor for her sister. The aides were Miss Annabelle Burger, W. Capitol dr., and Miss Virginia Altenburg, Chicago.

Serving as best man for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gahn, sr., N. Prospect av., was John Kerslake, N. Lake dr. The ushers were Thomas Carter, E. Lake bluff blvd.; Thomas Dallman, N. Berkeley blvd.; George Kraus, E. Henry clay st., and Jack Barten, Fort Wayne, Ind.

The wedding breakfast was served at North Hills Country club. After a honeymoon in the south, the young people will live on W. Vienna av.

The newlyweds are graduates of Marquette university. The bride is a Kappa Beta Gamma, Mr. Gahn a Delta Sigma Pi.
