

PROMINENT MERCHANT AT VIRGINIA DIES SUDDENLY

---

VIRGINIA, Jan. 24.—Samuel Lippman, 46, prominent Virginia merchant died suddenly at his home late this afternoon presumably from heart failure. He had been attending to business during the day and apparently was in the best of health when he arrived home. He is survived by his widow and several children.

The body probably will be taken to Duluth for burial in the Jewish cemetery.