Pastor Driven From Pulpit.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 28.—The pastorate of Rev. J. Alford Fisher, of the Franklin Avenue Congregational church, was terminated in a sen sational manner. Mr. Fisher has church, was terminated in a sen-sational manner. Mr. Fisher has, since coming to the church last No-vember, been charged with too liberal views in his pulpit utterances and he had been asked to resign. His contract, however, extends for three months longer.

During the morning services: Mr Fisher spoke of the manner in which many people regard the Bible, declaring that it had been made "a fetich." Thereupon Deacon Thomas Henderson arose in his seat and denounced Mr. Fisher for coming to the church "un-der false pretenses," saying that he had ROME, March 28.—Newspapers here publish an interview with M. Combes, the French premier, in which he says that the forthcoming visit of President Loubet is not only a courtesy from the president of the French republic to

King Victor Emmanuel, but that it is a visit from "A friend called France, to a friend, called Italy," the relations of which countries are now as close as possible.

M. Combes added that President
