BREVITIES.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pellerin, 1101 Hammond avenue, a daughter. Marriage licenses have been granted by County Clerk Flagstad to the following. Charles by County Clerk Flagstad to the following: Charles Aronvitz and Rose Dorf. Superior; Isadore Dorf and Rose Aronvitz, Superior. The prospective bridges and groups are brother and Aronaltz, Superior. The prospective brides and grooms are brothers and sisters. They will be married at a double wedding some time next week, When Miss Rose Dorf will become Mrs. Rose Aronaltz and Miss Rose Aronvitz will become Mrs. Rose Dorf.

The funeral of Gunhild Mabel Violet, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, 420 Grand avenue, was conducted from the house to Riverside conducted from the house to Riverside cemetery vesterday afternoon by Rev. O. N. Hildeton.

The social held at the Norwegian

Lutheran Danish church last evening under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Aid society was a great success in every way. Among the musical numbers rendered were vocal solos by numeers rendered were vocal solos by Roy Prytz of Duidnt, and Miss Bertha Ranvig of Superior; violin solos by Prof. Bugge and little Annie Erickson; plano solo by Ethel Jacobson and several selections by the Preistad male quartet; Mrs. Erickson played all of the plano accompaniments.

The meeting of the Black Rock mine stockholders which was called for last night was postponed until July 13.

night was postponed until July 13. when directors will be nominated. The appeal case of Emma Lewis against the Lake Superior & Southeastern was on all of yesterday in circuit court. Slow progress is being made in the hearing and it is possible that it may not be completed by the time court adjourns today. A numerical enders of the court adjourns today. A numerical enders of the state was the plaintiff wishing to prove the advance in Superior realty.

The Printers defeated the Postoffice Commercial league aggregation in a fair exhibition of ball at Hammond park last night, the final score standing 8 to 2.