

LAY PLANS FOR MOVING LIBRARY

Duluth Progressive Workingmen's Circle to Have Books Circulating by October.

Duluth Progressive Workingmen's Circle, No. 385, laid plans for a circulating library to be in operation by October 1, at a meeting last night in Foresters' hall.

Circle members agreed to donate $75 to the fund of $300 needed, expecting to raise the remainder by popular subscription. A committee appointed to take charge of this feature of the organization's work consists of I. Jaffe, Max Conoval, Sam Meyers, A. Litman and L. Dorfman.

The local organization is composed of Jewish workingmen whose aim is to advance the interests of the laboring class.
