

LOEB HONORED BY JEWS; / DIRECTOR OF ORPHANAGE

By electing him one of 13 directors in charge of the Jewish orphanage at Cleveland, the largest Hebrew charitable institution in America, Jews of the United States have honored Louis S. Loeb of this city.

Mr. Loeb is the first Minnesotan to become a director of the home. He was elected by 6,482 votes. There were 110 candidates. The heaviest vote cast for any one person was 2,000.

Mr. Loeb is a contributor to the B'Nai B'Rith Hebrew lodge, of which the Cleveland orphanage is the pet beneficiary. There are now 528 children being cared for in the institution.
