

HIBBING

HIBBING, Minn., Nov. 1.—Miss A. Gilliland returned Wednesday from an over Sunday visit in Duluth.

Fred O'Hare, who has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hinn, left Thursday for his home in Minneapolis.

Thomas Connors of St. Paul was in Hibbing for a few days the first of the week to visit his cousin, M. Conlker.

Forty-four children were guests at the masquerade party of the Junior league at the Mahoning street Methodist church parlors from 7 to 9 o'clock Wednesday evening. Bobbing for apples, fortune-telling games and visits to the gypsy fortune teller were the features of the evening. The guests were attired as ghosts, witches, brownies, Mother Goose, Folly, and even the weatherman made an appearance.

The women of the K. C. entertained at cards and dancing Thursday evening at McGorrick hall.

Mrs. John Shaw and granddaughter, Marcella, were the over Sunday guests of John Shaw Jr. at Eveleth.

Mrs. J. A. Whalen has as her guests Mrs. MacGregor and Mrs. James Wood of Chisholm.

Mrs. Frank Thomas and daughter, Beatrice, of Nashwauk, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Thomas.

Mrs. Edward Thomas of Nashwauk, was in Hibbing Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Miss Grace Shafer was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Randall. Miss Shafer is a student at the Duluth normal school.

Miss Laura Hall of the local teaching corps has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Hall of Minneapolis.

Mrs. M. H. Pearce, who has been visiting with her sister, Miss Alba Davis, for two weeks, returned Sunday to her home in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Charles Hallock entertained 14 children at a six o'clock dinner Tuesday evening in honor of the twelfth anniversary of her daughter, Madonna Hallock.

Rev. Frank Durant of the Christ Episcopal church returned Sunday evening from a three weeks' vacation in New York city.

The women of the Swedish Lutheran church gave a social Saturday evening.

Mrs. William Kenyon of La Crosse, Wis., was the guest of Mrs. D. G. Brose the first of the week.

Miss Lillian Toutloff of Chisholm was hostess to a number of Hibbing friends Sunday evening at a Halloween party. The decorations were in Halloween style. Miss Toutloff's guests were Misses Mary Galob, Beatrice Cameron, Anna Domsch, Mary Berry, Lorraine Allard and Mayme Toutloff, Messrs. Ben Waldahl, Gus Kohrt and William and Harold Allard.

Miss Alvina Schirmer of 314 Center street, was hostess to the Chautauqua Reading circle Tuesday evening. The program was as follows: "Current Events," Miss Bertha Stiles; "Crete, Its Legends and Its History," Mrs. Elliott; "Explanation of Doric, Ionic and Corinthian Art," J. F. Knowlton; "The Homeric Stories," Miss Morrison.

Dr. and Mrs. B. S. Adams have as their guest Dr. Adams' mother, Mrs. Adams of Lisbon, N. D., who will visit here for a week or so.

Mrs. M. P. Flannagan and daughter, Esther, returned Wednesday from a week's visit with Miss Evelyn Hauptman and Cecile Danahy, who are attending school at the Villa Scholastica in Duluth.

Miss Lillian Sachs entertained 13 guests at a Halloween party Friday evening.

Mrs. H. H. Faust entertained seven tables at bridge Wednesday afternoon. Honors were won by Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. E. Lerch.

Mrs. Charles Stevens was hostess to the members of the local hive of Ladies of the Modern Maccabees Wednesday afternoon.