

BREVITIES

Dave Baneroff, former shortstop on the Superior league baseball team, last season with Portland club in the Northwestern league, is slated for a berth with the Portland club in the Pacific coast league, according to a letter to friends.

* * *

Charged with having received goods alleged to have been stolen from box-cars, I. Averbook, a lower Tower avenue merchant, was yesterday arraigned in municipal court. Pleading not guilty he demanded an examination which was set for Thursday. He furnished $200 bond to secure his release.

* * *

The deal for lands in Douglas and Bayfield counties held by H. A. Johnson of Superior and associates, whereby the title to about 3,500 acres passes to T. A. Loveland of Minneapolis was closed yesterday. The consideration is said to have been close to $40,000. The new owners also hope to bring about road improvements to and through the lands.

* * *

Charged with having gambling devices in his possession, Oscar Westberg, a saloon man at 432 Tower avenue, was arrested yesterday and arraigned in court pleaded not guilty, securing an adjournment until Thursday. The arrest grew out of the arrest of two men in the saloon Saturday after one had accused the other of robbing him. Both were later found guilty of gambling and fined $10 each.

* * *

A big crowd attended and evidently enjoyed an entertainment given by members of the St. Louis church parish at the St. Louis hall, North Sixth street, last night. "Living pictures" featured the entertainment, which included various musical and literary selections. Rt. Rev. J. M. Koudelka, bishop of Superior, and Vicar-general Scheyer were guests of honor.

* * *

The case of Mrs. Hannah Hanson against the city will go to the jur in Superior court this morning. Arguments had been completed when adjournment was taken yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff, who is represented by H. G. Pickering, claims $5,000 alleged damages for a fall on a sidewalk in Butler park, claimed to have been defective. T. L. McIntosh, assistant corporation counsel, is appearing for the city.

* * *

The deceased was a Civil war vet-day by Detective Meade and Patrolman Anavik entering a room over 1712 North Third street, resulted in the arraignment of two men in court yesterday and the forfeiture of $10 each put up by two others. Frank Toski and George Zack were the two who forfeited. John Brown claimed to have been only an onlooker, was allowed to go. Stanley Smith plead guilty and was given a suspended sentence of $10 or 10 days.