

RANGE BASKET BALL SEASON WILL OPEN IN EVELETH HALL

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, Dec. 21.—The range basket ball season will be opened here Wednesday night when the Eveleth and Virginia city quints clash. Eveleth's basket shooters are led by M. Levant, who will play center. His brother, Matthew, a high school star, is filling the forward position, while Saari is one of the guards. On the Virginia team are Ed McCabe, Leighton Simons, Herman Eaton, George Carter and Eric Johnson. The latter is from Aurora. Ben Wilk, formerly with the Eveleth team, is playing guard on the Virginia quint. Virginia has not been defeated during the last two seasons. They will play Bemidji next month at Bemidji.
