

CITY BRIEFS

From Saturday's Daily.

Surprised By Friends.
Mrs. Benjamin Smith, 505 Maple street, and Mrs. M. E. Manning, 506 Maple street, were surprised by friends yesterday afternoon at the home of the former in honor of her birthday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing rum and refreshments were served. The guests of honor were each presented with a bouquet of old fashioned garden flowers. Mrs. Shaw of Buhl was an out of town guest.

Debate Yesterday.

A debate on the question, "Resolved that the Indian has been justly treated by the white man," was held in the seventh grade hall at the Northside school Friday afternoon. The leaders for the affirmative were Frank Boho, Raymond Kennedy and Eva Pae. For the negative, Don Pfeiffer, Robert Reed and Arline Olson. Miss King of the kindergarten acted as judge, and decided in favor of the affirmative.

Purchase Motorcycle.

Frank Caddy has purchased a 3-speed Harley-Davidson and is now practicing daily in order to trim some of the other cyclists who are in the habit of leaving a five mile cloud of dust behind them.

Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Kole Perovich, Gilbert, was today sentenced to 90 days on the county work farm by Justice C. O. Welch of that place, for carrying concealed weapons and was brought to this city this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Gronberg.

Returned from Ely.

Superintendent Colgrove of the local schools, returned last evening from Ely, where he gave a talk Thursday evening before the Mothers' club.

Received Surgical Treatment.

Matt Heikinen of Menahen, a farmer, was brought to this city yesterday and will receive surgical treatment at the McIntyre hospital.

E. C. Kelsey's Mother Dead.

Word was received today of the death of E. C. Kelsey's mother at Tonawanda, N. Y. Mr. Kelsey was called to her bedside a week ago, but at the time it was not known that her condition was serious. He is employed in this city by the Virginia Rainy Lake Lumber company in their office.

Selected Class Play.

The members of the Senior class at the local high school decided on the play which they will stage about May 1, at a meeting Thursday. A comedy "What Happened to Jones," is the choice. There are 13 characters in the play. The parts have been given out.

Change of Venue Granted.

Papers granting a change of venue in the case of J. B. Messner vs. John Munter, both of Hibbing, were filed today in the office of Deputy Clerk of Court Holloway and the case will be heard in Virginia instead of at Hibbing.

Prize Picture Here.

The picture won by Melia Reed of the Northside, in a Minneapolis Journal Junior story competition, Feb. 14, was received today. The title of the picture is "Summer Stillness." It will be put up in the Northside school.

Cholich Baby Buried.

The funeral over the remains of the infant child of Steven Cholich, 827 Fifth street, Northside, who died yesterday afternoon, was held this afternoon from the residence.

Madden Child Buried.

The funeral over the remains of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Madden, 126 Maple street, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence.

Surprised By Friends.

Friends of Le Roy Curtiss surprised him at his parents home, 705 Poplar street, in honor of his birthday. Card games and music were the entertainment.

PERSONALS

From Saturday's Daily.

Miss Clara Warner of Forbes, was shopping in the city today.

D. Champagne of Tower transacted business here yesterday.

William Mitchell of Rainier was a business visitor here yesterday.

C. A. Hine, of the New Fay hotel, is a business visitor at Duluth today.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Cannon of Mountain Iron were visitors here yesterday.

Miss Pauline Markham is today a visitor at Hibbing with Miss Beatrice Atkinson.

Mrs. Blanche Friske of Eveleth is visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. Ripley of the Northside.

Mrs. Jacob Weisel of Genoa is a guest today at the home of Mrs. C. H. Sammann, 205 Oak street.

Miss Gladys Barclay was a passenger to Duluth last evening and will visit there for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Johnson will visit tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aarni of Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Scholar of Eveleth will visit tomorrow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Harris on Locust street.

O. W. Carlson, 208 Mesaba avenue, left at noon for a visit with friends at Duluth. He will return this evening.

Division Engineer E. H. Spaulding of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad, was a business visitor here yesterday.

C. A. Graham, was a passenger to Duluth this morning. He will tomorrow attend the Knights of Columbus initiation there.

Miss Sorgenfrei of the Marinello Hair shop in the Lyric building, left last evening for a visit at Duluth with Mrs. G. Stab, 308 East Fifth street.

Mrs. E. Hall, 1612 West Superior street, Duluth, returned at noon to her home after a visit of several days with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Neubaur, 105 Poplar street.

C. B. Gilbert, trainmaster for the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway company was a visitor in the city today on business. He left at noon for his home at Proctor.

H. W. Brown, local station agent for the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway company, left at noon for a week end visit with relatives in Hayward, Wis., accompanied by his small daughter.

Miss Frances Donahue, teacher in the Biwabik schools, was a visitor here with friends last evening and left on the Canadian Northern for a visit at Gheen. She will return to Virginia to visit over Sunday.

Lucien Dodge who has been gaining practical experience at the factory of the Goodyear Tire company, Akron, Ohio, is expected home the early part of next week and will take charge of the repair department of the Excelsior Sales company.

Mrs. D. E. McKenzie, 519 Fourth street, left at noon for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Ada Paul of Minneapolis. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Mae Wood of Minneapolis, who has been her guest for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Houston, Hughes hotel apartments, returned last night from a two weeks trip to St. Paul and points in Montana. They visited with their son, C. C. Houston of Glendive, Mont., roadmaster for the Northern Pacific on that division. A spirit of optimism prevades the state of Montana more than ever before or since the war in Europe started, according to Mr. Houston.

CITY BRIEFS

From Monday's Daily.

Visiting at Daughter's Home.

C. F. Trager, with the Copeland-Ryder Shoe company of Jefferson, Wis., is a visitor in the city for several days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. O. Anhalt, 412 Central avenue. He is also calling on local trade. Mr. Trager has been covering the Range territory for the Copeland-Ryder company for 15 years and finds a remarkable change in the city of Virginia since he first came here. He said that respects for good business in the next few months, when warm weather comes, are good, but said that in his opinion, the present European conflict was having more effect on American business than most of us are willing to admit.

Cook Farmer Here Today.

Ed Olson of Cook, one of the many progressive farmers in that neighborhood, is a visitor in this city today buying supplies for his dairy. Mr. Olson has a farm of 320 acres, most of which is under cultivation and up to this time has gone into grain raising and dairy farming, but more extensively in the former. He has decided to do more dairy farming and is today buying additional supplies for that branch of farming. He has 10 cows and plans on buying more. Mrs. Olson accompanied him.

Boy Trapper Employed Here.

Herman Rosemund, Superior, has returned from visit of several days at the home of his parents and has accepted a place as helper in the shops of the Virginia Boiler Works. Rosemund, known as the boy trapper, spent all this winter in the woods in the northern part of St. Louis county trapping game. While working in the woods Rosemund got several nice specimens of fur.

Renovating Dining Room.

The dining room at the Ormonde hotel and the kitchen are being remodeled and renovated. Work started this morning. A new ice box will be installed in the kitchen and new gas ranges for cooking are being placed. The dining room is being painted and decorated. It will be closed while this work is being done.

Thaw Crippled Loggers.

Gus Johnson is in the city today from Cook. Mr. Johnson is one of the prosperous farmers of the Little Fork valley. He says that the thaw of last week has completely crippled the loggers in his vicinity. Many of them will be unable to get their cut out to the landings on the railroad and all the camps are breaking up.

Deborah Club Meeting.

The Deborah club was entertained yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Baer, corner of Beech street and Virginia avenue. Ben Wilk read a paper on "Orthodox Judaism and Modern Conditions," which was very well received. A pleasant afternoon was spent in social diversion following the program.

Bowlers in Duluth Tourney.

Virginia will be represented by two teams tomorrow at the Northern Bowling Association tournament in Duluth. The Ormonde hotel will be represented by M. A. Jacobson, C. J. Piper, John Toeller, Harry Jones and Sam Hansen. The Rivers & Nurni bowling alleys will send a team composed of George Massey, Nick Knutson, John Rivers, E. Taylor and Arthur Young.

Attended Initiation at Duluth.

Rev. Father Powers of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, returned this morning from Duluth where he attended the Knights of Columbus initiation yesterday. He left at noon yesterday and because of his absence from the city no Sunday school or evening services were held.

Mrs. Vaillancourt Convalescing.

Mrs. Vaillancourt, wife of Charles Vaillancourt, range representative for the Paine-Nixon company of Duluth, who is receiving surgical treatment in Minneapolis is recovering and will probably be able to return to this city, where they have made their home, in a week.

Bought New Autos.

Carl R. Johnson, Johnson Supply company, yesterday received the fine new 6-cylinder Oakland automobile ordered through the Range Oakland agency. Joseph Yammich also received his new 6-cylinder Mitchell, yesterday, which he ordered through the same agency.

Will Have Resort.

Herman Hartman, who has been employed at the plant of the Gopher Heading Manufacturing company at Cook, is a Virginia visitor today. Mr. Hartman plans on opening a summer resort at Moose Lake, near Cussons. He is well known to many Virginia sportsmen.

Attend Duluth Meeting.

M. A. Murphy, William McGraw, William Montague, Fred Verville, C. L. Dennis, P. H. Price, John Kreitzer, William Sparling and S. Jereissati, attended a special meeting of Duluth council Knight of Columbus yesterday when a large class was taken into the order.

Took Leg Out of Cast.

Fred Brooks, Jr., who had his leg broken several weeks ago while getting off the boiler of an engine, will be about in a few weeks. The limb was taken out of the plaster cast yesterday and the bone is healing nicely.

Entertained at Cards.

Mrs. Peter Robitaille of Beech street, entertained a number of her friends at cards Saturday night. Pedro and other games were played after which a fine service of refreshments was had.

Regular Meeting Night.

This evening is the regular meeting night for the Retail Clerks' union of Virginia. Their meeting will be held at the North Pole hall.

Maki Funeral Wednesday.

The funeral of Isaac Maki, 109 Oak, who was killed to death by a vicious horse Friday night, will be held Wednesday. The hour has not been fixed.

Held Services at Eveleth.

Rev. Jacob Matson of Virginia, conducted mission services for the Norwegian Lutheran church in Christopherson's hall at Eveleth yesterday.

Will Make Home Here.

Mrs. Jessie Atkinson, of the Troy laundry, will in a few days move from Mountain Iron to this city.

Mrs. W. E. Talboys of Chisholm was a visitor here Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Marion, 211 1-2 Central avenue.

At the Rex Theatre.

Big feature, tomorrow and Wednesday, Beatrice Michelson in "Salome Jane."

A. B. Coates is at Duluth today to attend the funeral of W. H. Cole.

Dance by Trainmen.

Representatives of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen are making preparations for their annual ball which will be given on Easter Monday and will be one of the biggest affairs local railroad men have ever given. Visitors are expected from all the towns on the Range and Two Harbors and Duluth. There will be special decorations, the best of music and the usual good time characteristic of the Trainmen's ball, which is an annual affair in Virginia.

Will Break Camp This Week.

If the mild weather, which has been experienced for the past two weeks continues the operations for the season at the Nelson pulpwood camps near Tabor will stop. Indications are that the weather will continue mild for several days at least. Several days like yesterday and Saturday would have given operators time in which to clean up their winter's cutting.

Mothers Meeting.

A Mothers' meeting was held at the Primary kindergarten Friday afternoon. The attendance was good and the meeting was a success. These meetings are held to give opportunity to the mothers of getting better acquainted with their children's work and to invite cooperation. They are arousing much interest among Virginia mothers.

James Lavick Ill.

James Lavick, of Mesberg & Lavick, is today confined to his bed from sickness. He has had a high fever since Saturday evening, when on the advice of his physician he went to bed. He was one of the committee that served lunch to farmers, who attended the Good Roads meeting here Saturday and caught cold. No complications are feared.

Freight Crew in Service.

Conductor Robert Chase's crew has again been put in service on the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific, after having been laid off to reduce the force a short time ago. There are some indications of increasing business on the D. W. & P. which slumped considerably during the last ten days due to the falling off in forest products shipments.

Enters New York Institute.

Miss Agnes Hassett, of Duluth, well known in Virginia, where she was formerly employed as a stenographer at the law offices of Otto A. Poirier, leaves today for New York, according to letters received by Virginia friends to enter the International Bible Student's Institute.

Leave Today for San Diego.

Letters received from Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Greely today located them at Kansas City. They leave there tonight for San Diego, Cal., where they will spend two weeks and later will go to San Francisco to remain two weeks visiting the exposition before starting their homeward journey to Virginia.

Will Entertain Dancing Party.

The local lodge A. F. & A. M. will entertain at an informal dancing and card party, Friday evening, March 19, from 9 to 12 o'clock at the hall over the Minnesota Dry Goods company store on Chestnut street. Lunch will be served.

Payday at D. W. & P.

Today is payday at the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific. The pay roll for his month aggregates nearly $20,000 and the business houses in the city have been today feeling the effect of the pay day.

Bought Oakland Car.

H. J. Scharr of the manual training department at the Technical high school, has placed an order with the Range Oakland agency for a 1915 model automobile to be delivered April 1.

PERSONALS

From Monday's Daily.

Clement Quinn is a Duluth visitor today.

Walter Heigel of Duluth was a visitor here yesterday.

Alfred Hoel of Biwabik, is a business visitor here today.

Mrs. S. J. Cusson was a passenger to Duluth at noon.

A. A. Tan of Cloquet, is transacting business here today.

Miss Mae Burton of Gilbert was a visitor here Saturday.

Ed Gilbert of Hibbing transacted business here last evening.

George W. Ellis of McKinley was a visitor here Saturday evening.

P. A. Carmichael of Hibbing, was a visitor here today on business.

R. E. Peers of the Virginia Meat company, was a week end visitor at Cook.

Robert Stratton, Hibbing attorney, was a business visitor here Saturday evening.

Henry Maki of Pike River, transacted business here Saturday and yesterday.

R. L. Griggs is at the head of the lakes today to attend the funeral of W. H. Cole.

D. W. Stebbins is at the head of the lakes today to attend the funeral of W. H. Cole.

Mrs. R. L. Griggs was a passenger at noon to Duluth where she will visit with friends.

Emmett Taylor left this morning for a short visit at his old home at Iron River, Wis.

Charles Vaillancourt returned this morning from Duluth where he has been transacting business.

H. A. Dodge of the Excelsior Sales company, was a visitor in Duluth for the last few days on business.

Goodwin Rude of Hibbing visited over Sunday at the home of his sister Mrs. W. A. Kiley, 606 Hemlock.

The Misses Matchek and their mother, Mrs. John Matchek, were Sunday visitors in this city from Gilbert.

Mrs. Stead of Eveleth and Mrs. C. E. Berg of Chisholm were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. Stordahl Saturday.

G. J. Wagner of the Range Oakland Motor company returned Saturday evening from a business trip to Duluth.

Al Geary, superintendent of the Longyear mine at Hibbing, was the guest of Virginia friends for the week end.

Percy Webster and C. C. Eckstrom of Hibbing, were Virginia visitors yesterday and were guests at the Ormonde hotel.

Charles Oakman of Cook, mail carrier, was in the city today on his way to Duluth where he will transact business for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Held of Chisholm were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gabrielson, Hemlock street.

Miss Cora Hearn, instructor in music in the schools of Biwabik, was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hearn of Virginia.

George G. Barnum of Duluth, of the Barnum Grain Co., members of the Duluth Board of Trade, was the guest of Virginia friends yesterday.

Anthony McNulty, of the Tredway Drug store, was a visitor at Duluth yesterday and attended the initiation of the Knights of Columbus yesterday.

C. W. Graham returned today from Duluth where he has been visiting since Saturday morning. He attended the Knights of Columbus initiation.

B. V. Arnold, representative of the Gately store, was an over Sunday visitor here. He has just returned from a two weeks business trip to International Falls and Bemidji.

Martin Moe, of the Moe Exploration company, returned this afternoon to Deerwood on the Cuyuna range where his company has several drills at work.

CITY BRIEFS

From Tuesday's Daily.

Former Resident Visited Range.

William Johnson of Crosby until four years ago a resident of Virginia in charge of the Mesaba Avenue bakery, and Charles Lakes transacted business here yesterday and visited with friends. Mr. Johnson runs a bakery shop at Crosby. He says business is good there and that the miners about there are getting ready for a big year's work. Several open pit properties are being stripped and the outlook for the coming season is good. They left last evening for International Falls, where they will visit for a day before returning to the Cuyuna range.

Building Spur Track.

Work will start in a few days on a spur track just north of the signal tower on Chestnut street in the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway company yards in Virginia. A loading platform will also be built and it will be possible to unload cars either from the side or the end. This will be a particular convenience in handling automobiles.

Looks For Good Year.

E. F. Remer, one of the old residents of the Range, was a visitor from Hibbing yesterday. Mr. Remer was for many years connected with the mining contracting firm of Drake & Stratton and is now with Butler Bros. He reports that mining men on the west end of the Range look for a late season, but generally entertain the hope that before its close there will be a brisk ore movement.

Methodist Ladies' Aid.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. C. McCartney, 419 Locust street.

Bowlers Leave Tomorrow.

The Ormonde and Rivers bowling teams from this city will participate in the bowling tournament at Duluth tomorrow and will leave on the 6:20 train over the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific line. The Rivers team consists of Young, Taylor, Knutsen, Rivers and Massey and the Ormonde bowlers are Jacobson, Piper, Hanson, Jones, Toeller and Amundsen. The latter team will take six men.

Will Open Store at Cohasset.

M. Soloski, a resident of Virginia or 17 years, until a few weeks ago a merchant here, will open a store at Cohasset, Minn., in a few weeks. He left last evening for the Twin Cities and Chicago on a trip to buy stock for his store. He was a member of the firm of Garon and Soloski on Chestnut street and sold his interest to his partner.

Several Bound Over Cases.

Ethel McCarthy and N. M. Nelson, recently bound over to the grand jury on a statutory charge, L. Mattson and several other persons will be up for trial before the April term of the district court which convenes April 6. The force at the sheriff's office in Virginia is today busy preparing subpoenas for service upon the witnesses and is impaneling the jury.

Preparing for Big Season.

On the Cuyuna range preparations are being made for a big year's business, according to Martin Moe, who left last evening to look after several drills which Moe Bros. have working near Klondike. Operators are getting ready to do considerable stripping and present prospects for a busy season on the Cuyuna range are good, he said.

Will Visit Panama Fair.

George Geoghan, Otto Vagts and William Curry, all employed by the Mesaba Railway company in this city, will leave this week for the Pacific coast where they will attend the Panama Pacific exposition and visit for about two months.

Bought Ford Automobile.

Edward Ala of Ala & Anderson, was a passenger to Duluth this morning and will return this evening in his 1915 model five passenger Ford automobile. Mr. Ala is one of the local agents for the Ford and will use this car as a demonstrator.

Removes to Ray.

John Shapansky, who for some time past has been engaged in business at Cook, has removed from that village to Ray, where he has purchased a building site and will make his home in the future.

Will Build Home.

George Kropinak, employed at the sawmill plant of the Virginia & Rainy Lake company has just purchased a lot in Williams Addition to Virginia. He plans to build a four-room cottage on it at once.

Surprised Miss Lindquist.

Friends last evening surprised Miss Lydia Lindquist, 105 Poplar street on her birthday anniversary. The evening was pleasantly passed in playing card games after which refreshments were served.

St. Patrick's Party.

Miss Clara Eddy of Locust street, entertains for friends this evening at a St. Patrick's day party. Decorations and games will be appropriate for St. Patrick's day.

Visitor from Orr.

H. A. Lammi, proprietor of a general store at Orr, was a business visitor here today. He returned to his home this afternoon. Mr. Lammi was formerly engaged in the confectionery business at Hibbing. He says that farmers in that neighborhood are preparing the ground for spring seeding.

Will Be Given Time to Recuperate.

In order that the members of the team may have time to recuperate from the fatigue of the trip they leave tomorrow morning for Northfield, on the 6:20 Canadian Northern train, although they do not play the first game until Thursday evening. Coach Jackson will accompany the team.

Wollaston Funeral Today.

The funeral of Mrs. Adeline Wollaston of Brunt Siding, was held this morning at 9 o'clock from the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Rev. Father Powers officiating. Interment was in Calvary cemetery. Mrs. Wollaston died Friday of pneumonia.

Will Visit at Northfield.

Miss Mildred Sigel leaves tomorrow morning for Northfield, Minn., where she will attend the basketball tournament and visit with Miss Cassie Monroe, who is attending school there.

Took Prisoners to Work Farm.

Arthur O'Dea left at noon for Duluth where he took several prisoners, who have received short sentences on the county work farm.

PERSONALS

From Tuesday's Daily.

Axel Dahl is a business visitor at Cusson today.

S. R. Kirby of Duluth is transacting business here today.

Gust Koski was a passenger to Wallace on business today.

Fred Witte, deputy sheriff, is transacting business today at Hibbing.

Assistant County Attorney Boyle is a business visitor at Duluth today.

L. M. Burghardt and wife of Angora are visiting in this city today.

M. E. Morgan of McKinley was a business visitor here last evening.

William A. Ross and wife of Tower were visitors in this city last evening.